COMPETES WITH 42

Judges Decide on No Other Ratings in Competition

SALINAS, Calif., July 18. (AP)—Miss Barbara Rowland, daughter of the mayor of Santa Ana, was chosen "The Best Outdoor Girl in California" and "Queen" of Salinas' 24th Annual Rodeo here today.

The selection of Miss Rowland from the 43 high school girls competing for the rodeo's first day program.

Miss Rowland, after reigning during the celebration, will be awarded a free trip to Honolulu.

Flag bedecked streets gave the town a Roman holiday appearance as thousands of visitors started arriving for the rodeo, which will reach its climax with "Colmo del Rodeo" parade Saturday.

Miss Rowland is 17 years old and a senior at the Santa Ana High school. Her father is Mayor Fred C. Rowland. The "queen" has brown hair, is five feet, seven inches tall and weighs 145 pounds.

Judges announced only the winner of the contest and said no position ratings.

SANTA ANA IS COOLER TODAY

Life came back to normal for Santa Anans this morning as they awakened to find the weatherman had called off the sun for an hour or so, and the thermometer had come down off its spree.

Yesterday at 2 p. m. the temperature was 94 degrees. Today at 11:30 a. m. it had risen to only 83.

WOMEN FEAR MOVEMENT

Back to Kitchen Drive Anticipated, Says NRA Counsellor

SEATTLE, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Mrs. Emily Newell Blair, head of the NRA consumers' council, on today's National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs program, said she believes that women all over the world "fear a back to the kitchen movement."

She said there were two classes of women, one seeking wage-and-hour equality with men and one seeking special protection for women. She urged that women take the leadership, and, in a way, make the world safe for men, as to working conditions.

"Women, today, must remember to be women," she urged. "All over the world today, women fear a back to the kitchen movement. How, women ask, can it be stopped? Not by protests, nor legislation, nor force. "Look at history for the answer. Whenever women had something the men did not, when they had a contribution to make which society needed, they were accorded recognition, exerted influence, were valued. Women's values have always been those which tend to preserve life, make it more easy, more secure."

Reds Fire on Jap Boat Seeking Gold in River

TOKYO, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—The Japanese quest for gold in the Amur river's shifting sands—and Soviet Russia's resistance to the search—added a fresh clash today to the growing catalogue of Japanese-Soviet incidents along Manchoukou's trouble laden river frontier.

Rengo (Japanese) News agency dispatches from Harbin said the Japanese authorities there were informed that a small river boat belonging to a Japanese gold mining company and flying the Japanese flag while seeking alluvial gold was subjected to rifle fire from the Soviet bank of the Amur July 9.

OMAHA, Neb., Thursday, July 18. (AP)—The Omaha World-Herald today said Charles Mack, Hooper, Neb., Marshal and a half dozen other persons identified pictures of William Mahan, fugitive Weyerhaeuser kidnap, as the leader of a group of three men who kidnaped Mack early today.

Besides Mack, the newspaper said, two brothers and their two sisters, who were taken for a pleasure ride by the trio last night, identified Mahan's photograph.

The children, Ada, Cora, John and Frank Mitchell, living three miles southwest of Hooper, range in age from 13 to 19, said the strangers left them at their home about 2:30 a. m.

Shortly afterward Mack was attacked by the trio, bound and forced to watch the men steal two automobiles and a gasoline supply in Hooper. He was left unharmed at a bridge north of the city.

ABDUCTORS CALL MAHAN LEADER

HOOPER, Neb., July 18. (AP)—Charles E. Mack, night marshal here, today said the "ringleader" of the trio which abducted him last night "looked very much like William Mahan," sought as the leader in the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping at Tacoma, Wash.

Mack was abducted on the street here, guarded by one of the trio while the other two stole two automobiles, bound hand and foot and then left under a bridge near Hooper.

"While the garage breaking was going on," Mack said, "the man who was guarding me said, 'You know who our leader is, don't you?'"

Mack said he replied that he didn't, whereupon the man said "you've heard of him. That's Mahan, the head man in the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping."

Mahan was reported to have been at a tourist camp near Grand Island, Neb., Tuesday evening.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Attorney-General Cummings today avoided a direct question on whether William Mahan, called "the remaining principal" in the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping, had been captured.

Reporters at Cummings' press conference asked about numerous reports from northwest points that Mahan, also known as Dainard, had been captured and was being secretly held by "G-men."

Emperor Haile Selassie Sounds War Call to African Soldiers

WASHINGTON, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Emphasizing the American government's desire for a peaceful settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian crisis, William Phillips, acting secretary of the state, revealed today that all American envoys abroad have been authorized to inform other powers of the United States' attitude.

Phillips' statement, coinciding with announcement in Geneva that the League of Nations would convene next week in an attempt to achieve a peaceful settlement of the African dispute, was interpreted by some observers as lending moral support to the league's efforts.

This country will not be represented by observer at the league session, Phillips said, because the Italo-Ethiopian controversy is considered as chief concern to European nations.

Phillips said Secretary Hull has invited the Italian, British and French ambassadors to the state department on August 10 and 11 to obtain their views of the situation and to clarify this government's position.

He revealed for the first time, officially, that Hull had diplomatically notified Augusto Rosso, the Italian premier, that the United States would view hostilities in Africa with deep concern.

SELASSIE SOUNDS WAR CALL TO SOLDIERS

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie called on all Ethiopians to follow him into battle today, declaring it was better to die free than to live without liberty.

In impassioned tones he said the military preparations by Italy now going forward proved the intentions of that country to conquer Ethiopia.

Would Lead Troops He called on all his subjects to unite and cooperate for the defense of the country, saying he would lead the troops into war. He appealed to all not to fear death.

"Our ancestors, he shouted, preserved their independence by sacrificing their lives. Follow their example!"

"God will be our fortress and shield and the modern armament of aggressors cannot deter our duty which is sacred for Ethiopian independence."

Reviewing Ethiopia's past relations with Italy and the events from the skirmish at Ualual last December until now, the emperor described Ethiopia's efforts for a peaceful settlement of the dispute and also similar efforts by the British which, he said, Premier Mussolini of Italy had "brutally rejected."

BLAME LABOR ROW

Onetime Underling to 'Big Shots' Had Long Career in Colorado

CHICAGO, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Louie (two-gun) Alterie, "big-time" gangster who survived the city's bloodiest bootlegging wars, was shot down as he left his hotel today and died an hour later.

A blast of nine shotgun slugs dropped Alterie so seriously wounded that he barely survived the ambulance ride to Lakeview hospital. But the gangster's assassins missed Alterie's woman companion, identified by police as his wife, Irma, 35.

LABOR TROUBLE BLAMED

Captain Daniel Gilbert, chief of the state's attorney's police, blamed the slaying on "labor trouble." Once the partner of the slain Dion O'Banion, pioneer Chicago bootlegger, Alterie had lately been an official of a "janitor's" union, Gilbert said.

His wife was taken into custody by police.

Alterie was known as a lieutenant of Dion O'Banion at the time the first picturesque figure in the city's gang hierarchy was shot to death.

Controlled North Side

The O'Banion-Alterie mob had gained control of the north side beer and booze distribution by virtue of their quickness with pistols. Although the Capone mob was blamed for O'Banion's killing, Alterie was later known as a Capone underling.

Alterie won his nickname "two-gun" when O'Banion was slain. Then Alterie posed for photographs, brandishing a pair of pistols, and announced: "I'll shoot it out at State and (Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 3)

ARMSTRONG IN OPINION ON RULING

Exchange Head Asserts Marketing Agreement Is Undisturbed

BETTER ACT COMING

California Still Has Own Law to Govern Sales, He Declares

Orange county and Southern California citrus growers need have no fear that the marketing agreements under which their products are sold will be in legal danger this season as a result of the wave of casualties knocking out various features of the Agricultural Adjustment Act on which the marketing agreements are based.

This was the cheering news made public today by Paul S. Armstrong, general manager of the California Fruit Growers exchange, in an interview with The Journal.

Furthermore, Mr. Armstrong said, even if the present tendency results in complete annihilation of the fundamental AAA, this state still has the state prorate act, which would be equally effective for valencia oranges as far as this state is concerned.

Expects No Interference "I don't expect to see any interference with the operation of the valencia marketing agreement during the present season unless the new AAA measure now being debated in congress is defeated. Even then, the administration would follow up under the old act with which we are operating at present."

"We have been assured by the AAA that they will back us up under either the old act or the new one," explained Mr. Armstrong, who only recently was in Washington conferring with AAA heads.

FREE JUICE IS GOOD IDEA!

Fruit Leader Commends Plan

Paul S. Armstrong, general manager of the California Fruit Growers exchange, today commended enthusiastically the Orange county valencia packing houses for their program of attracting tourists to this section by inviting them on packing house tours where they are to be given free orange juice.

Mr. Armstrong said he wished to commend the packing house officials for launching this program, which not only will result in keeping tourists in the county longer, but also will be an advertising feature for this county and the citrus industry.

"Orange county should take steps to do all in its power to attract tourists and induce them to stay as long as possible," said the fruit exchange leader.

At the same time Mr. Armstrong revealed that the exchange special advertising program, for which a $360,000 appropriation recently was made, got under way in newspapers of Eastern and Middle-western consuming centers Monday. The special appropriation will cost the growers 2 cents per packed box.

BOSTON AAA DECISION NOT TO HALT PROCESS TAX COLLECTION

OLD STATUTE WILL BLOCK INJUNCTION

Cummings Says Ruling Will Affect Only Case in Question

WASHINGTON, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Attorney General Cummings said today the decision of the circuit court of appeals at Boston against the AAA's processing taxes would not prevent future collection of such taxes except in the particular case in which it was handed down.

Referring to more than 150 pending injunction suits to stop collection of the processing taxes in various parts of the country, the attorney general said a "statute of long standing provides that no injunction shall be granted to restrain the collection of any taxes."

A prepared statement, issued at the attorney general's press conference, said:

"The decision of the majority of the circuit court of appeals for the first circuit in the Hoosac mills case does not prevent future collection of processing taxes except in that particular case. This case will be carried to the supreme court as quickly as possible, since the government does not acquiesce in the correctness of the decision."

Raise New Question
"In many cases taxpayers have attempted to prevent collection by suits or injunction against the collectors. These injunction cases raise an additional and different question from those involved in the Hoosac Mills case."
"The government must oppose all efforts to restrain the collection of processing taxes unless and until the supreme court directs otherwise."

chusetts circuit court decision against the processing tax feature of the AAA, the California-Arizona agreement would not be affected, said the exchange head, pointing out that the only way it could be knocked out would be through a case aimed directly at it. There are no such cases pending at present, and even if one were launched, it could not reach a final decision until after the present marketing season, he explained.

Debate Pending
There was pending on the floor of the senate today a debate on the revised act which has been worked over by attorneys, with a view to correcting constitutional weaknesses.

"If the new act prevails," said Mr. Armstrong, "as we expect it will, it is the opinion of government attorneys and others that it will stand the test on constitutional grounds, although of course such things are always a matter of conjecture. The act has been rewritten deliberately to bring it within the policies indicated by the supreme court in its NRA decision."

Amendments Introduced
However, amendments have been introduced, and the one in which California is particularly interested at present is one introduced by Senator Byrd of Virginia, which would strike out all agricultural products except milk. This would mean that citrus and other fruits as well as vegetables would be deprived of the marketing agreements.

The administration changes in the act are only changes in legal forms of administration as far as citrus fruits are concerned, said Mr. Armstrong. The present act is based on licenses issued by the secretary of agriculture. Because of the objection to delegation of power raised in the NRA decision, this licensing feature has been changed in the new act so that it will be on the basis of an executive order, the exchange manager explained. The secretary of agriculture, under the new act, would be an administration officer, he said.

ADJUSTMENT PROGRAM NOT TO BE ALTERED

PORTLAND, Ore., Thursday, July 18. (AP)—The agricultural adjustment program of the department of agriculture will be altered in no way until the United States supreme court has ruled on the constitutionality of the processing tax, Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, announced here today.

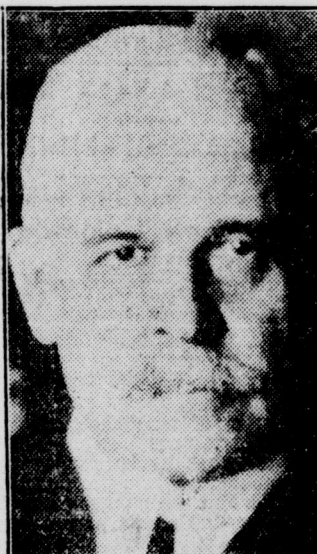

Wallace said most of the proposals of the department which might bear on the situation created by the ruling of a New England circuit court of appeals that the processing tax is invalid, have already been submitted to congress in the form of amendments to the Agricultural Adjustment act. Otherwise, he declared, the program of acreage and crop reduction and of benefit payments to com-

The secretary had no solution to suggest in event the processing tax, backbone of the AAA and source of revenue from which benefit payments are made, is eventually ruled unconstitutional by the supreme court. In such a case, he suggested, "congress would have to attempt to find some other way. It might be a sales tax, or possibly higher income taxes."

CLEANUP IS ORDERED BY OFFICIAL

Action Followed News Of Senate Probe on Utility Legislation

WASHINGTON, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Testimony that an official of the Associated Gas and Electric company, soon after the senate lobby investigation was ordered, instructed his subordinates to get rid of all records in connection with their campaign against the Utilities bill was received today by the lobby committee.

E. W. O'Brien, Erie, Pa., Associated official, said he had been directed by U. E. Beach, manager of the securities department of Associated at Ithaca, N. Y., to dispose of his records. He said he placed them in a wastebasket. O'Brien added that he told all his branch offices to get rid of their records.

No Use for Records
O'Brien said Beach told him "We had no longer use of our legislative records—that we were through with utility legislation work."

R. P. Herron, bond salesman of Warren, Pa., who sent several hundred telegrams to members of congress against the legislation, said he had "burned" his records after O'Brien had told him there was to be an investigation and he should clear out his files.

Paid by Cash
In March, O'Brien said, the managers were ordered to pay for the telegram drive in cash. "Why not by check?" asked Senator Schwellenbach (D., Wash.).

"We were going around in a more or less quiet way," O'Brien said.

"Didn't they want to conceal from senators and representatives the fact that these messages were not bona fide?"

The witness sparred with his questioner. Finally he said that "might have been" the motive.

The hearing recessed until 10 a. m. tomorrow after T. B. Kingsbury, Washington manager of the Western Union, said a complete check showed 97,265 utility bill telegrams costing $58,359 had been received by representatives during the week preceding the house vote on the utilities bill.

Ickes said at a press conference he had instructed the Louisiana PWA director to receive no applications for new projects. The president said yesterday the Louisiana laws would create difficulties in carrying out new projects. Ickes said today "there won't be any PWA projects as long as the law is what it is down there."

STORM DRAIN MAY BE 1ST WPA JOB

The Villa Park storm drain project, with a total cost of approximately $135,000, if approved by Administrator George White of Solano Beach, will be the first Orange county project to be submitted to the state headquarters of the Works Progress administration.

This project, now under way as a State Emergency Relief administration job, was presented to Mr. White yesterday by Dan Mulherson, Orange county WPA head.

The cost of completing the job will be $30,000, to be shared by the government and Orange county on an 80-20 basis if WPA policies are carried out. So far the county and the SERA have expended $55,000 on the work.

February 26 was the date of launching the work, and it is estimated that four months more after July 31 will be required to finish the job. There are now 217 men on the project.

Other projects submitted to Mr. White yesterday by Mr. Mulherson include the Basque avenue bridge in Fullerton, a painting project for the Orange High school, improvement of Batavia street, Orange, Richfield storm drain, installation of culverts at the Santa Ana river and Coast boulevard, continuation of the Santiago creek parkway, improvement of the intersection at Olive, continuation of work at Irvine park, repair of drainage works for the Newhope and Talbert drainage districts, placing of concrete jackets on pipelines of the Newport Heights irrigation district at Costa Mesa, a Costa Mesa storm drain project and improvements on Hillcrest park at Fullerton.

SCHOOLS FINISH '36 BUDGETS

With members of the Greenville district school board scheduled to present their budget for the fiscal year 1935-36 to County Superintendent of Schools Ray Adkinson today, practically all school budgets have been submitted. Superintendent Adkinson said that there are still three districts that have not yet submitted their requests.

He has stressed, in notices to the boards, that all budgets must be submitted before July 20. Advertising of the budgets is scheduled to start July 27, with public hearings set for August 1 to August 7.

Indications are, said Mr. Adkinson, that slight increases will be shown in practically all budgets submitted, these increases being justified on the grounds that they are for replacement and maintenance of equipment and buildings.

In practically every instance, he said, the increased cost of maintenance has been offset to a considerable degree by reduction in operating costs.

REPORTED SEEN AT ESCONDIDO

SAN DIEGO, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—William Mahan, much sought kidnaper of George Weyerhaeuser, was reported seen last night at a tavern in Escondido, 35 miles northeast of here, the sheriff's office revealed today.

While discussing the sentencing N. C.

of Mrs. Margaret Waley, 19, for connection with the kidnaper Casper Cascioppo, proprietor of the establishment, noticed a young man who evidenced more than common interest in the talk. Cascioppo quoted him as saying Mahan had just come from Chehalis Wash., near Orting, and that was "pretty hot up there right now."

After the young man left, Cascioppo bought a detective story magazine and identified the stranger as being Mahan by a picture. Other patrons in the tavern at the time, including Ed Cooper, former sheriff, also said that the identification was exact.

Years ago the making of gun entirely by hand was one of the chief industries of Guilford county, N. C.

POLICE REPORTS

Car belonging to H. M. Narshall, 1115 South Main street, stolen July 17 between 8 a. m. and noon, from Parton street, between First and Walnut streets, recovered by Huntington Beach police at 5 a. m. today.

Chevy grocery at 601 Adams street burglarized last night of $8 in cash and $3 in merchandise.

A dog has been bothering the mail man on Garnsey street. The poundmaster was instructed to investigate the case.

A bicycle belonging to Mrs. S. A. Miller of 202 Van Buren street, Midway City, stolen from in front of the Midway City postoffice yesterday.

Someone cut the screen on the rear door of the Beasley grocery, 2296 East Fourth street, last night. The window was broken, but burglar apparently did not make an entry. Nothing found missing.

COURT BRIEFS

In a decision filed yesterday by Judge Roy McPherrin of El Centro, who has been sitting in superior court here, Mrs. Faye Reeves Donaldson was declared to be the owner of 10 shares of capital stock in the Anaheim Union Water company. Mrs. Reeves had sued W. H. Wickert, Walter P. Mang, the late H. F. H. Schneider, Mrs. Augusta Schneider and the water company to secure title to the stock.

Lale D. Swartzbaugh and Ruth Baldus have named E. L. Sargeant defendant in a suit started in superior court to quiet title to property in West Orange.

Meet Your Neighbor

The Journal's Compilation of "Orange County People You Should Know."

Name:
Mac O. Robbins.
Occupation:
Insurance.

When and where were you born?
July 22, 1888, in Kasota, Minn.
What has been the most interesting event of your life to date?
The 25 years event of marriage and seeing a family of children growing up.

What career would you recommend for a young man starting out for himself today?

I'm not good at guessing.
What is your favorite department or feature in The Journal?
The news.

Your second choice?
The editorials.
What should be the United States government's next major step?

I have never considered myself to be a congressional timber.
What one thing does Santa Ana need most?

Consistency—buying as we sell—let's say, "Living up to our ideals, commercially."

How can Orange county be improved?
Right now, I'd ask for a little less of this unusual (?) weather.

One sentence interview:
I am very proud of the showing made by insurance during the financial difficulties of the past years, and am glad to be a representative of this business in this community.

Happy Birthday

The Journal extends birthday greetings today to the following:
PAUL BAXTER, Blythe, Calif., formerly of Santa Ana.

HUGE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED AT LAGUNA BEACH

DEAL TOTALS $200,000, REPORT

Subdivision of 360-Acre
Tract Is Planned by
W. S. Rosecrans

LAGUNA BEACH.—Sale of 360 acres of land in Aliso canyon, the first property settled in Laguna Beach, to W. S. Rosecrans, who will head the Aliso Canyon ranch, was announced here last night by Fred A. Leach, pioneer South Coast developer and Laguna real estate dealer. Cost of the property is reported to be $200,000.

Mr. Rosecrans, grandson of General W. S. Rosecrans of Civil war fame and a director in the Los Angeles chamber of commerce, plans to develop the property which consists of water frontage and an extensive canyon with an ocean inlet running through it, by building cottages, selling water-front lots and small ranches. The improvement of the Aliso river into a small canal for still-water bathing and small boats is also included in the plans for developing the new project.

The developers also plan to bring to the coast a French, landscape engineer and designer of the Palos Verdes estates tract. The Aliso canyon ranch is well known to residents as one of the beauty spots of the coast as well as the oldest ranch in Laguna Beach. Joseph S. Thurston, first resident of Laguna and former owner of the property, came to Laguna in 1871, traveling overland from Utah as a pioneer California settler. His father, attracted by the beauty of the canyon and rugged coast line, filed for ownership of 152 acres, which was then government land. He cleared the land, built a home for his family, planted eucalyptus and olive groves and later his son acquired 128 acres and 80 acres which comprises the present ranch. Joseph Thurston, son of the pioneer, has unearthed many interesting Indian relics and tells many tales of smuggler episodes through Aliso canyon to the Smuggler's cave in Wood canyon beyond.

It is the plan of the present owners to develop the groves, which have grown greatly since the pioneer Thurston family planted the trees into parks for residents of the new development.

ORANGE LIONS HAVE PROGRAM

ORANGE.—The Lions club met yesterday night in the American Legion hall, with Ivan Swanger as program chairman. He introduced C. H. Robinson, who talked on Mexico and exhibited many things of interest brought home by him, including rugs, pottery, idols plowed up in the fields, and carved novelties. He also showed pictures taken in various parts of the country. Dick Stanton assisted in showing the pictures.

Mr. and Mrs. John Koelling, their daughters, Florine and Edith, and Mr. Koelling's niece, Miss Amanda Bruns, left yesterday for a month's vacation, traveling east by motor. They will stop first at Westgate, Ia., where they will visit Mr. Koelling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koelling. Their final destination is Ft. Wayne, Ind., where they will be the guests of Mrs. Koelling's brother, Paul Warning, and other relatives.

DORIS TAYLOR IS HONORED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

MIDWAY CITY.—Honoring the birthday of her daughter, Doris, Mrs. Percy Taylor entertained a group of young people at a winner bake recently. Present were Ruth Robertson, Peggy and Dorothy Miller, Florence and Jimmy Dale, Billie Keller, Donald and Betty Hall, Bob Prichard, Doris Foley, Duane Hurst, June Stowell, Barbara Taylor and the honoree, Doris Taylor.

The Los Amigos card club will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Marcus Jungjohn on South Jackson street, with Mrs. W. E. Moore as co-hostess. A newly-organized dinner and bridge club will gather for the first meeting Monday evening, at 6:30 in the community clubhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dale, Florence, June and Jimmy Dale, left yesterday afternoon for an extended motor trip, with Far Rockaway, N. Y., their eventual destination, where Mr. Dale will greet his parents for the first time in 10 years.

Mrs. J. W. James, who has been quite ill in St. Joseph's hospital, was brought to her home on South Jackson street Tuesday.

SHE SELLS SEA SHELLS Hobby Changed To Business

Playgrounds At Newport Are Near Completion

NEWPORT BEACH.—Construction of four new playground recreational units to cost $1000 will be completed within two weeks, Harry Welch, secretary of the Newport chamber of commerce, said today. Money for the equipment was appropriated by the city council. Supervision will be supplied by the county SERRA.

Three of the playgrounds will be built on the beach front at Newport, East Newport and Balboa, and one will be a flood area near Bay Island in the bay.

Nature studies, swimming lessons, badminton, ping pong, tennis, baseball, football and other sports are included in plans.

BUDGET TOPIC AT LAGUNA

LAGUNA BEACH.—Statement by City Attorney Milburn Harvey that Attorney Webb declared the re-enacted 5 per cent limit law unconstitutional caused city fathers to postpone action on the tentative 1935-36 budget for Laguna Beach at a council meeting here last night.

According to the 5 per cent limitation law, budget for Laguna Beach for 1935-36 was $42,410 and George W. Prior, city clerk, announced at the council meeting that the tentative budget drawn up here last week included $47,305 which is $4895 over the legal amount allowed for expenditure. City Attorney Harvey stated that due to the announcement of Attorney General Webb today, the over expenditure would be legal. City councilmen, thrown into confusion by the budget limitation controversy, postponed action on the budget until a special meeting planned for next week.

A protest against competitors in insurance and real estate business operating without city licenses, the second of its kind to be sent to the council, was read. Perry E. McCullough stated that he joined with Joseph Jahrus, owner of the Laguna Beach Lumber company, who a few weeks ago submitted a similar protest, in requesting that insurance brokers and real estate operators in Laguna be forced to pay city license fees. City Councilmen ordered the letter of protest referred to Chief of Police Abe Johnson for immediate action. Several names of real estate and insurance companies in Laguna operating without licenses were mentioned in the letter.

Applications for positions as city treasurer were read by Mr. Prior from Merriam Smith, M. E. Flinn, Art C. Dolton, and Samuel Piety. Mr. Smith also applied for the position as city clerk. Action was deferred until a special meeting scheduled for next Wednesday.

RADIO SINGER TO RENDER ONE SONG FOR SANTA ANA

When Mario Chamlee goes on the air tomorrow evening at 7:15 o'clock over a national network, one song he sings will be especially for Paul Comito, 802 Spurgeon street.

In a personal note written beside the form acknowledgment which Mr. Chamlee sends to his fans, the Metropolitan opera star explained that "I will sing the Italian song for you on July 19. It cannot be announced but you will know when you hear it that it is your song, Grazie mille. Auguri e saluti, Mario Chamlee." The singer is a former U. S. C. football player and glee club singer.

PETITIONS FOR SEWER READY

MIDWAY CITY.—Petitions are ready for circulation here asking that the county board of supervisors call an election for formation of a sewer district as the first step in obtaining a new sewage system and disposal plant for Midway City.

Cost to residents has been estimated at about $20,000 if federal aid is obtained for the project. Included in the plan is purchase of 10 acres of land for erection of the disposal plant.

A general citizen's committee, which met here last week, decided that boundaries of the district formed last year for the same purpose will be used in this attempt to obtain the sewer for Midway City. George Bates, engineer for the project, will be assisted by Ed L. Hensley, W. E. Moore and J. H. Pryor in checking on boundaries for the proposed district.

Former boundaries included the subdivided portion of Midway City northeast of First street and Huntington Beach boulevard, a residential section southeast of the two boulevards and some property below First street on the southwest side of Huntington Beach boulevard.

One new addition has been made to the proposed district, with a five-acre plot belonging to C. C. McWhinney on the west side of the beach highway included. This acreage will be used as a park and will be improved with SERRA labor, it was reported today by Mr. Bates.

SEEK OIL FROM NEW LEVEL

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Activities in the town lot field continued today as oil operators renewed efforts to bring in producers from the new 3500-foot Jones sand. The Gay well, located in the third block from the ocean on Twenty-first street, was brought in this week as a 200-barrel producer.

Charley Camp's No. 2 well at Twenty-second and Magnolia drilled out the cement last night and today are setting a six-inch liner preparatory to testing for a water shut-off. Earlier in the week, while setting the regular 8-inch casing above the sand, it froze 160 feet from the bottom.

As soon as the Camp well is completed, the Standard Oil well at Twenty-third and Magnolia will be brought in. Some of the rotary mud from Camp's well plugged up the Standard's casing and they are holding the gas pressure to prevent a fill-in.

Several of the other town lot wells have been experiencing considerable difficulty in shutting off the water at such a low level. The Jones sand at 3500 feet is a narrow strata which has been opened only in the past two months.

For years oil operators passed through this sand in their haste to reach the proven pools at 5000 and 6000 feet. The newly-developed sand was named after McClellan G. Jones, principal of the Huntington Beach Union High school. His wells were the first to tap the sand.

GARDEN GROVE VISITOR RETURNS TO SAN JOSE

GARDEN GROVE.—Mrs. Byron Hester has returned to her home in San Jose following a two-week visit with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Simpson. Several trips were taken during her stay here including one to the San Diego fair with Mrs. Simpson and her son Charles and on the eve of her departure a family dinner was held at the Simpson home. Other guests were the father and brothers of the two women and their families, C. E. Middough, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Middough and children of Long Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Middough of Ontario.

Miss Ernestine Wakeham is entertaining her roommate at the University of California at Berkeley, Miss Marjorie Larsen of Tracy this week.

A. D. R. Waters was a luncheon guest of Mrs. K. C. Coffman of Fullerton yesterday.

Mrs. M. S. Ryan is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earl Walker and family, at Corona this week.

The Rev. Grover Ralston, who with his family is spending several weeks at the Harkness cabin at Skyline in the San Bernardino mountains was in town yesterday on business.

Included in a party enjoying a swim followed by a picnic supper at Seal Beach recently were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Whipp and sons, Paul and Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald and sons, Franklin and Warren and daughter Bertha, Mrs. J. M. Gilbreath and daughters Doris and Eva and Miss Carol Ford.

Mrs. G. R. Reyburn had Dr. Floyd J. Seaman of Los Angeles, as a luncheon guest Tuesday. Dr. Seaman was formerly pastor of the First Methodist church here.

BAND CONCERT HERE TONIGHT

Presenting another of their Thursday night concerts, the Orange county band, under T. Dunstan Collins, conductor, will give the following program to-night at 7:30 o'clock in Birch park:

March, "Bombasto," by Farrar. Overture, "The Black Rose," by Brockman. Waltz, "L'Estudiantina," by E. Waldenful. Serenade, "At Evening Time," by Jewell. March, "Men of Valor," by Kiohr. Overture, "Princess of India," by King. Selection, "Superba," by Dalby. March, "Barnum and Bailey's Favorite," by King. "Star Spangled Banner."

MIDWAY CITY YOUTH HURT

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Charles Schmidt, 16, of Midway City, is in St. Joseph's hospital at Santa Ana with a fractured skull and two other boys are nursing injuries as the result of an automobile accident at Seventeenth and Olive streets here at 7:30 o'clock last night. Vester Hazelton, 16, sustained a broken collar bone, badly cut head, and was knocked unconscious. David Robertson, 17, was treated for severe lacerations about the head and hands.

Schmidt was driving, with four other boys in the car, when an oil truck crashed into them. V. L. Robinson, Los Angeles, driver of the truck; Charles Hazelton, 18, Midway City, and Frank Ehrhardt, 25, New Westminster, both riding with Schmidt, were uninjured. Dr. Ralph E. Hawes treated the boys.

PENSION CLUB PLANS TOLD

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Mayor Thomas B. Talbot will extend an address of welcome to an expected throng of 7000 here next Sunday afternoon when Townsend clubs of Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties stage a mass meeting and basketball game at the beach, it was announced today by Robert Hosmer, president of the Huntington Beach pension club. Delegates will arrive during the morning and will convene in the beach dining hall at noon for a basket lunch. Coffee and cream will be provided by the chamber of commerce and the local Townsend organization.

Of the 80 active clubs in the three counties, Mr. Hosmer expects a huge delegation which may exceed the 7000 mark. This is the first mass meeting ever held by this district. A voluntary silver offering will be collected to aid in carrying on the organization's work.

PLAN FETE FOR NEW PASTOR

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Members and friends of the Methodist church will meet at the parsonage tonight to stage a reception for the new minister and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Cole. Official speeches of welcome will be given by Roy K. Smith, Sunday school superintendent, and other officers of the church. Refreshments will be served after the program.

Prayer meeting services were inaugurated last night. These mid-week devotionals will be held regularly from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock. Rev. Cole announced. Women of the Ladies' Aid society will conduct a cooked food sale in the old Chalmers building next Saturday morning. It was decided at a special meeting yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Roy K. Smith.

NEWPORT SET FOR SCRIBES

NEWPORT BEACH.—Newspapermen from all Southern California will make the Newport harbor district their playground Saturday in the annual Press Day meeting. A luncheon served in the Palisades club, Corona Del Mar, at 1 o'clock will start the festivities.

During the afternoon the guests, expected to number more than 200, will be taken on excursions about the new $2,000,000 harbor and will enjoy fishing, swimming, boating and other diversions.

After a dinner at Balboa, members of the fourth estate will dance at the Rendezvous ballroom. They will be guests of the Newport harbor chamber of commerce the entire day, with Secretary Welch and Publisher Sam A. Meyer in charge of the program.

FOUND GUILTY --- SATISFIED

When the Tacoma, Wash., federal jury found Mrs. Margaret Waley guilty of participation with her convicted husband, Harmon, and the fugitive William Mahan in the $200,000 Weyerhaeuser kidnaping, she said she was satisfied. She was heard to say, "My goodness, I hope that jury doesn't acquit me." The 19-year-old woman is shown surrounded by her attorneys. (Associated Press Photo)

Newport Sailor May Cruise With Roosevelt

NEWPORT BEACH.—Capt. Frank Bruckner, commander of the schooner Viking IV for the past 21 years, is looking forward to a distinguished sailing companion next September. It plans of President Roosevelt to visit the harbor and sail from here to San Diego are carried out, Capt. Bruckner will share sailing honors on Commodore Albert Soland's schooner with the country's chief executive.

Capt. Bruckner is well acquainted with the Viking IV, the supervised building of the schooner, which is equipped with bronze, brass and copper instead of iron, as in most similar boats.

COUNCIL GIVES LEGION $700

ANAHEIM.—Assuring success of the annual Armistice day parade, which will be held here November 11, the city council recently appropriated $700 to the American Legion to aid in covering expenses of the celebration.

Several weeks ago the local Legion post decided not to sponsor the annual event this year because of conflicting dates on other parts of the state, mainly a proposed Legion day on that date at the San Diego exposition. Later the exposition plan was revised and plans were again started for the celebration and parade here.

"I have eaten it myself," Art-ran stated, "and consider it a great delicacy. It tastes some what like frog legs but is more tender and juicy. Reptile meat is much superior to that of warm-blooded animals, and some day we will see alligator ranches established for raising meat of these large reptiles."

The drum corps will form the nucleus of the delegation. July 27, both drum corps of the camp and drill team of the auxiliary will go to San Diego to attend the fair and participate in the competition there.

Calumet camp, U. S. W. V., will have a delegation at the reception for Elmer Cole, department junior vice commander, in Huntington Park tomorrow night, according to decision of the camp at a meeting Tuesday night in the K. of C. hall.

Le Mon Leads County Boxers Against East Side Invasion Tonight

Column Left!

By FRANK ROGERS

Since this is strictly a year for comebacks, we nominate two who should be given gold stars in this division—Robert Moses (Lefty) Grove and "Wild Bill" Hallahan.

Grove, flaunting a $100,000 prize tag attached to him by Connie Mack when the venerable pilot sold him to the Red Sox, has figured in a revival gesture that is nothing short of material for a movie.

He has won his last five games and for his year's work thus far points to 11 victories. And that after a decidedly punk 1934 campaign.

Hallahan, however, has been even more spectacular. He has lost most of that quality that earned him his moniker. Off to a poor start in losing his first three games, Bill snapped back and won his first in June. Since that time he has chalked up five straight wins and is getting better with each start, it seems.

In four complete games since his first 1935 victory, Hallahan has allowed a total of 14 hits, climaxing this string yesterday by checking the Boston Braves with four blows. Hallahan is one of the reasons why the unstopable Cards have collected 13 straight victories.

BRIEF STORIES OF SPORTS DOINGS

Joe Medwick is closing in on Fullerton's Arky Vaughan in the race for major league batting averages. . . . Vaughan, long the leader, has a mark of .357 in the averages released this morning. . . . Medwick has .372 and is going strong.

he has also taken over some of the other divisional leads once held by Arky—runs, (69), hits (121) and doubles (260). . . . but the former Orange county lad, just back in the game after a layoff, should pick up his work soon. . . .

Raymond Paige, Arky Vaughan L. o. s. Angeles maestro of the airways, is anxiously watching a San Pedro shop put the finishing touches on his 22-square meter racing sloop.

We like Vincent Lopez to beat Man Mountain Dean in the so-called title struggle in Los Angeles Wednesday night. . . . if the big fellow gets the crown he will hide it under his whiskers and complications will arise. . . . he will defend it but seldom require so much gravity that no one will battle him. . . .

Lopez is really good enough to lick the 317-pound thing if all is as it should be. . . . but Lopez probably could not lick Danno O'Mahoney, the new champ. . . . typical of the game, George (Cry Baby) Zaharias is the newest wrestling idol because he makes up for his defeats by being dirtier—they say he is worse than Dirty Ernie Dusek. . . . and a recent proposal to match these two foulers leaves us cold. . . . there's no point that we can see, in watching two rascals beat each other. . . . make it one rascal and one hero and you've got something.

NAZI DAVIS CUPPERS WILL BE TOUGH

Eyes of the sport world turn to England Saturday as America's young Davis cup team takes on the German contingent in the challenge round of that historic play.

Although cheered by the work of Oakland's fiery Don Budge, American fans tremble at the thought of two powerful Nazi performers who stand in the way of Yankee hopes—Heinrich Henkel, a new star in the German tennis world, and Baron Gottfried von Cramm.

Henkel carried Jean Borotra to five sets at Wimbledon and has defeated Jack Crawford, the Australian champ, and Vivian McGrath.

On two previous occasions Germany found the United States blocking her way to the challenge round, in 1929 and 1932, and each time the Yanks blasted their hopes, but they feel that with Henkel and Von Cramm carrying the burden of the work on their shoulders there will be a different story.

GIBSON HEADS HURLERS

LOS ANGELES, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Sad Sam Gibson, big San Francisco righthander, today held a firm grip on his lead as the coast league's No. 1 hurler. Pitching statistics including Tuesday's games found Gibson with 13 victories chalked up against one loss. Glenn Gabler, Angel hurler, ran second with 10 wins and one defeat.

BANG GOES BING

EDMUND JOHN "BING" MILLER, 41-year-old veteran who starred with some of the greatest Philadelphia Athletics teams, is on his way to pinch-hitting glory with the Boston Red Sox. In 14 emergency appearances in the first five weeks of the season he poked six hits, for a .429 average. He drove in eight runs and his hits won four games.

MAKING THE MAJORS

FLOYD "FEP" YOUNG, 28-year-old infielder from Jamestown, N. C., has finally crashed the Pittsburgh Pirate lineup after several sojourns in the last few seasons on the bench. He broke in when Cookie Lavagetto was injured, and in three weeks had compiled a batting average of .325 while fielding with more than satisfactory efficiency.

DAVIS CUP PAIRINGS FOR U.S.-GERMANY PLAY REVEALED

EIGHT BOUTS SLATED FOR CLUB RING

Fullerton Heavyweight Opposes Jack Simmons In Main Event

Right from one of the "fightiest" neighborhoods in Los Angeles—the east side—comes a pack of clever youngsters to oppose Orange county's best boxer tonight at the Orange county athletic club arena on Highway 101. Eight four-round bouts are lined up and each battle finds a lad from the Boyle Heights athletic club meeting a county fighter.

Young Le Mon, pride and joy of the district's boxing fraternity, takes the lead spot in a main event battle with Jack Simmons, colored heavyweight. Le Mon, a terrific puncher who represents Fullerton on the all-county lineup, has won most of his starts here and in every appearance has pleased the customers.

Points for Simmons Since his triumph over Sailor Jack Hips a few weeks ago, Le Mon has not fought but has been concentrating his training on tonight's battle with Simmons, a boy with good recommendations, according to matchmaker Ben Steffler and Promoter Sam Sampson.

Art Hernandez, Anaheim, a popular 150-pounder, takes on Irving Friedman in the semi-windup, that promises to crowd the top spot as the most active westminster's Art Arroya (tangles with Ralph Morris in the episode at 135 while Placentia's Babe Rosales meets Herbie Kaye in the fifth bout.

Other Battles Other bouts bring Anaheim's Paul Saucedo and Irving Kaye, 136 pounds, together; Waldman Mesa of Anaheim and Cesar Cohn, 140; Santa Ana's Tony Torres and Bill White, 140; and Westminster's Jole Park and Young Barney Ross in the opener.

Manny Lieberman, well known handler, runs the Boyle Heights gym from which he has picked his most capable boys for their Orange county invasion tonight.

BUDDY BAER TO FIGHT TONIGHT

BUFFALO, N. Y., Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Buddy Baer, 235, battles Al Delaney, 190, young Cleveland heavyweight, in a four-round bout tonight.

It will be the younger Baer's second appearance in a Buffalo ring, he having scored a one-round knockout early in the spring with George "Big Boy" Brackey as his victim.

Brother Max and his bride, Mary Ellen Sullivan Baer, were to have been spectators at the fight but Mrs. Baer decided yesterday that she did not desire to leave their New Jersey resort home.

Tourney for All Brother Baseball Nines Proposed

WICHITA, Kan., Thursday, July 18. (AP)—It would be tough on the official scorers, but a tournament may be held here next month to pick a championship baseball team consisting solely of brothers.

At least four such teams exist in the United States, and Raymond Dumont said he was considering a "brother" team tournament in connection with the national semi-pro tourney here Aug. 13-25.

The brother teams include the Mariatts of Caspar, Wyo.; the Simonsons of Topeka, Kan.; the Eichelbergers of Pekin, Ill.; and the Deikes of San Antonio, Tex.

Games Tonight
7:30 o'clock—M. E. South Juniors vs. Union Oil.
8:30 o'clock—M. E. South Seniors vs. Elks.

Softball fans will be treated to one of the Santa Ana City league's most attractive rounds at the Municipal bowl tonight.

Larry Cannon's Union Oilers vie with the M. E. South Juniors at 7:30 o'clock. The champion Elks and M. E. South Seniors mix in the customary nightcap.

Speculation is rife as to who will win the second-half flag and gain a play-off series with the first-half champion Elks for the 1935 crown. Strengthened by the addition of Outfielder "Porky" Bell and Catcher Cliff Lee, the Elks may repeat, but Kenneth Miller's club will have a man-sized assignment in finishing ahead of the Commercial National bank's rejuvenated nine, the 20-30's, the Methodist Seniors and Union Oil.

ROY MORT WINS FOR MISSIONS NATIONAL CREW RACES START

(By the Associated Press) Roy Mort, part-time first baseman for the Mission Reds, is a hero today after he almost single-handedly pulled his club through to its second straight win over Sacramento, 6 to 1, and to within eight small points of the league leading Seals.

The youngster batted in five of the Reds' runs, scored the sixth and was on the end of the double play that ended the game. Hollis Thurston who alternates between first base and the pitching slab, let the Senators down with six hits.

Big Smead Jolley lost a fly ball in the glare from the field lights to set Seattle off on a scoring spree that lasted two innings and brought in all of the Tribe's runs as they defeated Hollywood 10 to 4. Four alternate singles and doubles following Jolley's muffed accounted for six runs.

San Francisco and Portland laid down a 30-hit barrage last night as the Ducks won 8 to 6 to even the series. Two Seal hurlers donated 17 safe hits to the Beavers. Joe di Maggio got one of the Seals' 13 hits to extend his string of hits in consecutive games to 24.

Oakland and Los Angeles called off their game to make way for the Lewis-Rosenbloom fight.

GARDEN GROVE FRANCHISE IS AWARDED DANA BEAL

Dana R. Beal of Garden Grove today was awarded Garden Grove's franchise, which Kenneth Dungan forfeited in the County Night Ball league, and his revamped club will face its first test at Brea tomorrow night, according to Secretary Vic Walker.

Chet Coates, brother of Jim Coates of Santa Ana's Stars, will play third base for the new team. Other well-known athletes represented are Charles Andres, ex-jaycee star; Mearl Hapes, Clyde Estep, Bob Otto, Russell Sayers, Bob Hosack, Miller Dungan, Virgil Hilton, Chapman and Rumbaugh.

Regarded as the team for Brea to beat for second-half honors, Fullerton's Chevies journey to Olive for the other of the three assignments tonight.

OLD BATTING STARS SLIP FROM LEAD

Simmons, Manush, Trosky Age Not Booming So Well This Season

WASHINGTON, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Big guns on the batting range a year ago—Al Simmons, Heinie Manush and Hal Trosky—are not booming so impressively this season.

They have been in a hitting slump, Simmons, highly-paid Chicago White Sox outfielder, is almost a hundred points behind his 1934 batting average and barely over the lowly .250 mark. Actually the former Athletics scribe gun found himself benched for a time.

Washington's veteran gardener, Heinie Manush, is far behind his usual pace and apparently heading for an average below .300 for only the third time in his 13-year major league career. Manush, once batting leader and twice runner-up, is hitting only .254. At this stage a year ago he was leading both major leagues with .400.

Trosky, Cleveland first baseman who broke in with such a bang last season that he was hailed as another Babe Ruth, is down around .240. Few recruits have been such first year sensations as Trosky, who batted .330, and knocked out 35 home runs. Some trace his trouble to a change in stance.

Others are having their woes, too. Jo Jo White, the Detroit outfielder, has a mark of around .200 as compared with his .313 of last season, while Bill Werber of Boston is nearly 80 points lower than his .321 pace of 1934.

Earl Averill of Cleveland, out for several weeks now with a hand injury, is below .300, as are Goose Goslin of Detroit, Ben Chapman and Earl Combs of the Yankees and Marvin Owen of Detroit.

YACHT SELECTIONS NEAR Star Fleets to Sail Sunday

California's entries in the international star boat races to be held off Balboa August 23-28, should be rather well determined by Sunday night.

In San Francisco Glenn Waterhouse and his Three Star Too have already won the right to represent the northern fleet and other groups will practically finish their elimination series Sunday.

More Entries In addition to the boats representing the coast, 15 entries from the Atlantic, Gulf coast and foreign fleets will be in the event, seeking to wrest the championship from Southern California where it has resided the past three years.

LEADING FEMININE TANK STARS COMPETE TODAY

NEW YORK, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—The country's foremost women swimmers churned the waters at Manhattan Beach today as the National A. A. U. championships opened with three of the eight champions defending their titles in the first events.

The first race sent Olive McKean of Seattle, in defense of her 100-meter free-style crown, against 20 other spring stars, including titleholders in three other events.

Two Rivals Katherine Rawls, Miami Beach's all-around star and holder of the springboard dive championship, Lenore Knight, the mile queen from Lawrence, Kan., were the choice to retain her title in the day's third championship—the one-mile free-style.

With Miss Rawls not defending her diving title, Dorothy Poynton Hill of Los Angeles, 1934 platform diving champion, was an outstanding favorite. Miss Knight was the choice to retain her title in the day's third championship—the one-mile free-style.

Before the championships end, Miss Rawls and Miss Knight will have competed in eight events between them and met five times. Besides the 100-meter free-style, they will match strokes in the 440-yard free-style tomorrow and the 880-yard crawl Saturday. Both titles are held by the home-stead star. They will swim against each other in the two relays—the 300-meter medley and the 880-yard free-style.

Miss Rawls also will defend her titles in the 300-meter individual medley and compete in the backstroke event.

Young Law Student Bolsters German Tourney Hopes

BERLIN, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—When Germany moves into the Davis cup interzone final with the United States at Wimbledon Saturday, its hopes for victory—and thus its first attainment of the challenge round—will be based on more than the mere "charm" of its third effort against Uncle Sam.

For Nazidom has at last found a capable singles player to team up with her brilliant nobleman, Baron Gottfried Von Cramm, and the Baron himself has shown that he is almost a sure bet to rise from No. 3 to No. 2 in world ranking this season.

Blocked Way Germany found the United States barring her way to the challenge round on the two previous occasions when it won the European zone laurels, in 1929 and 1932, and each time the Americans checked the German advance.

But the Nazis have found a suitable Cramm running-mate, they feel, in 20-year-old Heinrich Henkel, slender law student, and their hopes for tennis glory are brighter than ever before.

Hit Stride Against Aussies. Henkel is playing his second year on the German cup squad, but it wasn't until he faced Australia in this year's elimination round that he hit a stride which generated all the confidence now displayed about the Rot-Weiss club, where the team trains.

The newcomer conquered Jack Crawford—who seemed to be failing at the time but at Wimbledon proved still good enough to whip America's Sidney Wood—in five sets after having defeated Vivian McGrath, which gave Germany its amazing 4-1 victory, for Von Cramm also won both his singles sets.

The German team's weakness lies in the doubles. Kaj Lund and Hans Denker, both older than Henkel, haven't been able to cope with first-rate opposition and probably will be no match for the crack American team of Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn.

MAXIE SCORES EATON, GRIMES 19TH VICTORY HEAD TOURNEY

OAKLAND, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Maxie Rosenbloom, former lightweight champion, has another victory to his credit today, after receiving an unpopular decision over John Henry Lewis, in a rough slugging match here last night. The victory was the nineteenth scored by Rosenbloom since he lost his title to Bob Olin.

Referee Frankie Burns' decision was questioned by many who thought the Arizona Negro's cleaner punches had earned him an edge. Both fighters cut loose with everything they had with the first bell, standing toe to toe and slugging. Each was frequently warned by the referee for low punches.

APOSTOLI WINS BY KNOCKOUT

SAN FRANCISCO, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Freddie Apostoli, 157, is back on his bell hop job in a San Francisco hotel today after scoring one of the quickest knockouts of his career.

His jolting right hand found the jaw of Eddie Schneider, 159, of Portland, last night after just two minutes of fighting.

Ray Ockley, 131, Portland slugger, and Ted Cano, 135, stole the show in the semi-windup, putting on a slam-bang slugging match with Ockley winning by a knockout in the seventh.

ALLISON AND BUDGE FACE NEW TEST

Miss Helen Jacobs Will Team With Gene Mako In Doubles Monday

LONDON, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—The draw for the inter-zone Davis cup matches between the United States and Germany starting Saturday was made here today.

Two single matches will be played Saturday, the first between Donald Budge of Oakland, Calif., and Heiner Henkel, the youthful German star. This pair will be followed to the court by Wilmer Allison of Austin, Tex., ranking American player, and Baron Gottfried von Cramm, ace of the German squad.

The doubles match Monday will find Allison and John Van Ryn of Philadelphia teamed against Von Cramm and K. Lund. Following this match, Helen Jacobs, the American women's champion, and Gene Mako of Los Angeles, will play a mixed doubles contest against an English team to be named later.

In two more singles matches to be played Tuesday, Allison will meet Henkel and Von Cramm play Budge.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Donald Budge of Oakland, Cal., playing even greater tennis than in the all-England championships, defeated Wilmer Allison of Australia, and the No. 1 ranking American, 6-3, 6-1, 6-2, in a hard-fought practice session today.

Gene Mako of Los Angeles, will play a mixed doubles contest against an English team to be named later.

In two more singles matches to be played Tuesday, Allison will meet Henkel and Von Cramm play Budge.

Before the individual duels began, however, a playoff of seven contestants was scheduled to fill three blank spaces in the bracket.

The seven were tied at the top of the qualifying slate with 151. At the other end were Rodney Bliss Jr., smooth-hitting Omaha youngster, who won the medal with 142, two over par.

KRUGER FIRST IN 'TALKTEST'

"Getting Up Steam" was the subject of the talk given by Eugene Kruger which won first place in the weekly speaking contest held by Smedley chapter of Toastmasters International at its meeting last evening at James cafe.

Mr. Kruger told of the interesting changes in design of electrical generating equipment as evidenced by the equipment in the three turbo-generating plants at Long Beach.

The importance of weather conditions on the east coast upon the demand for citrus fruit in that section of the country was stressed by Henry Bosch in his talk on "Citrus Marketing Conditions," which won second place in the speaking contest.

Harry Fink, speaking on "Broken Homes," warned of the danger to American ideals due to the increase in broken homes, and stated that a home broken by discord between the parents was as bad for the children as a home broken by death or divorce.

"Human Evolution" was the subject of the talk given by Max Freeman in which he discussed the opinions held by various schools of thought as to the purpose of life, the existence of a hereafter and similar problems.

Bert Lawyer talked on "A South Seas Utopia," in which he told of the life lived by the native and white residents of American Samoa.

An outline of his educational experiences and present work was given by Herbert Thomas in his initial "Craft Talk" before the club.

Grant Kyle acted as toastmaster, with Dr. C. J. Ruley as his general critic.

Capt. S. E. Moses, U. S. N., retired, and McD. Moses, father and brother of Stanford E. Moses Jr., club member, and Fred Eley Jr. were visitors to the club.

PINK AND BLUE THEME EMPLOYED AT SHOWER PARTY

Pink and blue flowers were used in the Ivan Elliott home on Memory Lane Tuesday evening when Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. J. W. Richardson of West Eighth street shared hostess honors at a lavette shower for Mrs. Neal Minter of Santa Ana.

The guests covered little coat hangers for the lavette. Mrs. Rodney Leonard won a prize in a game. A salad course was served.

Mrs. Elliott's small daughter, Barbara, and Marian Todd brought in the shower gifts.

Other guests were Mesdames Dan Williams, D. O. Minter and Spencer Elliott, and Misses Denna Raymond, Letha Taylor and Rachel Minter, Santa Ana; Mrs. Frank Hoover, San Diego; Mrs. Glen Minter and Miss Lois Minter, of Sanger; Mrs. Henry Boyd, Anaheim; Mrs. Ernest Peters, Buena Park; Mesdames William Todd, William Bennett, Forrest Bennett, Joseph Trumpy and Edna Leonard, and Misses Irene Wiley and Claudine Minter, Orange.

Also Mesdames Gaylord Helms, Lucille McCullough and Gerner Peterson of Los Angeles.

PLAN TO ATTEND TOWNSEND MEETING

WESTMINSTER.—Members of the Townsend club in this locality are planning to attend the 19th Congressional District picnic to be held on the Huntington Beach pier next Sunday. After a basket lunch at noon there will be a band concert and later several well known speakers will address the audience. Among the speakers expected are Tom Wallace, of the radio division, and Paul Lichens of national headquarters.

Among those at the beach Tuesday were Mrs. Ella Penhall, Mrs. Ruth Penhall, Marvin and Delbert Penhall, Mrs. O. J. Day, Phyllis Shirley and Julianne Day, Mary Morgan, Mrs. Clyde Day and Herbert and Annabelle Day.

Mrs. Anna Campbell, Barbara and Dee Campbell, Mrs. Ruth Penhall and Delbert and Marvin Penhall spent Wednesday in Anaheim park.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Clark of Mariposa are guests of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Krouse. Mr. and Mrs. Krouse and Mr. and Mrs. Clark will go to San Diego tomorrow to spend a few days at the exposition.

150 PRESENT AT D. A. V. SUPPER

More than 150 members of Jack Fisher chapter and auxiliary, D. A. V., met last night in Anaheim park for a pot-luck supper. The next regular business meeting will be held August 7. It is expected that another picnic would be held next month.

MEET THE WIFE

Mrs. Fiorella LaGuardia

A wise and shrewd young woman was Marie Fisher. She was the best secretary Fiorella LaGuardia ever had. She ran his law office when he practiced, and she ran it again when he was deputy state attorney general. When he went to Washington and to congress, she went along with her.

She became indispensable. Fiorella LaGuardia married her. If the mayor of New York has any breath left in him when his day's work is done, he may play a while on the cornet. Then Marie plays the accompaniment. She attends the symphony with him and sits upstairs. She likes to go to ball games. But social affairs? No, thank you! The mayor's wife has a husband to look after, and the mayor needs rest.

Members of the Santa Ana Breakfast club were entertained this morning with a program of songs presented by Sally Lee Scales, accompanied by Miss Ruth Armstrong. At the close of the meeting, several members of the organization, Miss Scales and Miss Armstrong, went to the home of Earl Morrow, district manager of the Southern California Telephone company, where a second program of music was presented especially for Mr. Morrow, who is unable to attend the meetings of the breakfast club because of illness.

Talks to Parents

By Brooke Peters Church

Pass-Me-Downs

It is hard to be the youngest of a large family and wear only clothes that were planned and made for someone else. Some children in such a position grow bitter and discontented under the necessity of always wearing hand-downs from some older member of the family.

If mothers would use a little more understanding and tact much of the hard feeling might be eliminated. Passing on old-grown clothes to the next in size whether brother or sister or cousin or even family friend is often necessary. It need not, however, be done in such a way as to cause shame and humiliation to the recipient.

Take Good Choice

If it is a question of brothers and sisters care should be taken in choosing the dress for its original wearer to see that it will be becoming to the next also.

No matter how well the older child may look in vivid and odd colors, the second child should not be forced to wear them unless they are becoming to her also. If clothes must be worn a long time and by different people they should not in any event be conspicuous.

Make Some Change

If the clothes come from outside the immediate family they should, if possible, be altered, and in any event cleaned and pressed so that they look new and feel fresh. And here again the fact that they are too good to throw away should not be allowed to weigh too heavily in the balance if they are unbecoming to the next in line. Some change can generally be made if it is only to dip the garments in a cheap dye.

Unless the family finances absolutely forbid it, no child should be forced to wear other people's clothes exclusively. No matter how full its wardrobe may be of perfectly good second-hand wearing apparel, it should be given the satisfaction every so often of having a new dress of its very own.

Feeling Well Today?

By DR. IAGO GALTSTON

Preventing Childbed Fever: The public has read many discussions on maternal mortality. Less notice has been given the heroic efforts being made by the medical profession to overcome the hazards of maternity.

In one sector of this battlefield the campaign is intense. This is the sector dealing with puerperal sepsis—that is, with the infections associated with childbirth.

Watch Infection

When a woman develops puerperal infection, she may have acquired it from someone else or from within herself. She may, in other words, have become contaminated by bacteria harbored by another person, or her infection may be the result of bacteria, originally present within her body, which were enabled to thrive because of the weakening she suffered during childbirth.

To diminish the hazards of infection from outside, in the best of our maternal hospitals every individual who comes in contact with women in labor is examined to determine whether or not he harbors within his body the bacteria most commonly responsible for puerperal sepsis.

Take Precautions

These are the so-called hemolytic streptococci. If any of the physicians, students or nurses actively suffer infection or are carriers—that is, persons who harbor but do not suffer from these germs—they are excluded from the direct care of the patient.

Another precaution that is taken is thorough masking of the nose and mouth.

"Masking" requirements are imposed strictly upon every one who in any way at all comes in contact with the patients.

Members of the Jimmy Allen Model Plane Flying club will be interested to know that Vandermost Inc., Fourth and Broadway, has been selected as downtown headquarters for the cadets who have entered the contest, which will determine the winning models to be taken to Los Angeles for final entry.

Model planes from all over Orange county are being entered and will be displayed in the Fourth street window.

Each boy's name will be on the plane he enters. The planes will be on display at the store Friday, and remain until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, when the judges are to make their decision. Fred Burlew, Floyd and Eddie Martin have been selected to act as judges. The names of the winners will be announced in The Journal.

All entrants in the Jimmy Allen contest will receive bronze merit award medals. Boys and girls who are not members of the famous flying club are urged to affiliate. While the contest is open only to club members, boys can join by getting membership application cards from any Richfield service station. This entitles them to free plane folders on how to make models for the contest.

BREAKFASTERS HEAR SINGER

Members of the Santa Ana Breakfast club were entertained this morning with a program of songs presented by Sally Lee Scales, accompanied by Miss Ruth Armstrong. At the close of the meeting, several members of the organization, Miss Scales and Miss Armstrong, went to the home of Earl Morrow, district manager of the Southern California Telephone company, where a second program of music was presented especially for Mr. Morrow, who is unable to attend the meetings of the breakfast club because of illness.

Dietrich Dietrickson, Santa Ana artist who at last week's meeting started a portrait of the breakfast club's president, Edward Hall, today presented the completed painting. Members of the club expressed their satisfaction, and complimented Mr. Dietrickson on his work.

Colonel William C. Harlee, recently stationed at New Orleans, has retired from service with the U. S. marines after being in the army since 1900.

VETS WILL MAN CHAMBER HAS SOIL PROJECT CABINET NOW

War veterans, whose former ratings ranged from buck private to lieutenant commander in the navy, will man the soil conservation project which will be launched near El Toro in the near future. The Citizens Conservation corps camp at El Toro, which will house the men, will be completed by August 1, it is expected by Capt. W. M. Thomas.

The driveway leading to the camp will be lined with 150 palm trees. The buildings, being erected under supervision of Lieut. Norman Dole, construction engineer of the United States army, will be painted white. Eight barracks, dining hall and kitchen have been completed. Other structures are under way.

The camp members will work on a demonstration project for control of soil erosion, on a 25,000-acre area near the camp. This work will be in charge of Horace E. McConnell, assistant state administrator in charge of erosion control camps in the southern part of the state assigned to the Soil Conservation service, and Walter

The associated chambers of commerce is going to have a cabinet, composed of officers of the organization and chairman of its committees, and this cabinet will enjoy a buffet supper at the home of George Kellogg in Yorba Linda at 6:45 p. m. next Monday.

Mr. Kellogg is president of the associated chambers and he hopes to have cabinet meetings from time to time for the purpose of discussing the functions and increasing the efficiency of the various departments and the organization as a whole.

After the buffet supper, the cabinet will convene for the first time and the duties of the various committees for the coming year will be outlined. Mr. Kellogg's home is two miles south and east of Yorba Linda.

W. Bauer, superintendent of the camp, Farm Advisor Harold Wahlberg has been cooperating with the soil conservation service in establishing the project in Orange county.

LOCAL BOY TURNS HERMIT

Ranger's Job Is Lonely Task

Robert MacFarlane, former Santa Ana junior college student, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. MacFarlane, 617 East Walnut, Santa Ana, has turned "hermit."

Operating the Cuyama ranger station near Mariposa, Calif., young MacFarlane is virtually cut off from civilization, and although missing his many friends in Santa Ana, he is greatly enjoying his work in the forestry service, say letters received here.

Bob has charge of a station 50 miles from the nearest city, five miles from his nearest neighbor, and about a mile from the nearest road. His duties consist mainly of preparing daily weather reports for the Cuyama area and watching for fires.

Visits from friends are few and far between, and sometimes the Santa Ana youth passes two or three days without seeing another white man. His food supplies are brought into camp by mule once a month.

SUNDOWN STORIES

By Mary Graham Bonner

"I want to drive over to talk to your Uncle Norman about our camping trip," a father said to his son Bert. "Will you come along?"

"Sure," Bert answered.

As they were driving out of the town to go to Uncle Norman's place, Bert said: "Dad, did you see that advertisement about the dog that is lost? I wish I could find that dog."

The father went on to talk about plans he had for the camping trip when suddenly Bert cried out: "Look, Dad, down by those tracks, there's a brown dog. Let me see if he can be Rip."

The father stopped the car and the boy ran across a small field to the place where he had seen the dog.

"Tip? Are you Rip?" Bert exclaimed.

Rip had tried to hobble away on his three legs. He had been having a hard time traveling with a sore paw and had had to stop every little while.

When Rip heard his name he knew that something had happened so that people who knew and understood were looking for him.

He wagged his tail and barked in such a way that the boy knew he must be Rip. "They've advertised for you, Rip!"

Kiddies, Matches, Cigarets Lead to Fire in Garage

Two children, not over eight years old, some matches, cigarettes and a desire to be grown up, yesterday afternoon resulted in a small blaze in the garage at the home of Arthur Greenleaf of 2005 Cypress avenue.

The fire was discovered shortly before 2 p. m. Somehow a mattress caught on fire, and the frightened children ran screaming from the garage. Neighbors saw the smoke rolling out of the windows of the building and called the fire department.

The parents of the children were not at home at the time. Firemen who answered the alarm, recommended an old-fashioned spanking for the two would-be "grown-ups."

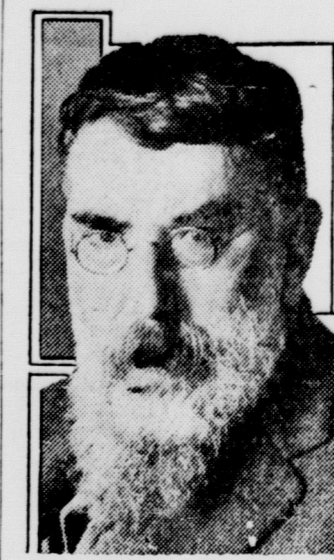

2 KILLED, 12 HURT IN TRAIN COLLISION

PASCO, Wash., Thursday, July 18. (AP)—An engineer and a transient were killed and 12 persons injured 27 miles east of here last night in a head-on collision that telescoped the engines of a freight and local Northern Pacific passenger train.

The dead: Stanley Cowan, about 60, Pasco, engineer of the passenger; Fred Madison, Portland, who lived half an hour in the wreckage.

GEORGE WILLIAM RUSSELL

BOURNEMOUTH, Eng., Thursday, July 18. (AP)—The world of letters mourned today the passing of George William Russell (AE), Irish journalist, poet and painter. Already ill on his return from a trip to the United States a few months ago, Russell suffered a set-

An explanation of the method whereby valuations are arrived at for insured loans made through the Federal Housing Administration was made public here today at the better housing survey office. F. W. Marlow, FHA director for Southern California, said appraisals are made on the basis of insurance risk and not on the cost of the property involved.

"Our appraisal is fair market value, which is defined as the price which a well informed buyer, acting intelligently and voluntarily, would be justified in paying for the property, and what a well informed seller, acting in the same manner, would be warranted in asking," said Mr. Marlow.

The FHA program is designed to aid in securing loans for repair of homes, for financing new and refinancing old construction.

Newspapers recalled that he hit on his pen name, AE, accidentally. He used the signature "AFO" in one of his earliest works. When the printer could decipher only the first two letters, Russell decided to adopt the shortest known pseudonym in literature.

NEW DEAL MORE CONTROVERSIAL THAN HUEY LONG, SAY LA WYERS

CONCLAVE OF BAR GROUP REPORTS

Louisiana Law School
Held on Probation
At Convention

LOS ANGELES, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—The New Deal had replaced Senator Huey P. Long and the law school of Louisiana State university as the controversial problem of the American Bar association today as it neared a close to its 55th annual convention here.

The association's council on legal education which last May placed the L. S. U. law school on a probationary basis, indicated the entanglement might reach an amicable conclusion in May. Until then, the school will be continued to a status of probation. Fireworks anticipated at the council session on the question were absent, as council members indicated Dr. Frederick K. Beutal, new dean of the law school, had made a "good impression" in behalf of L. S. U.

New Deal Report Late

The committee of legal notables appointed last year to formulate a report on the "effects of the New Deal upon the rights and liberties of the American citizen" today had been unable to make much progress.

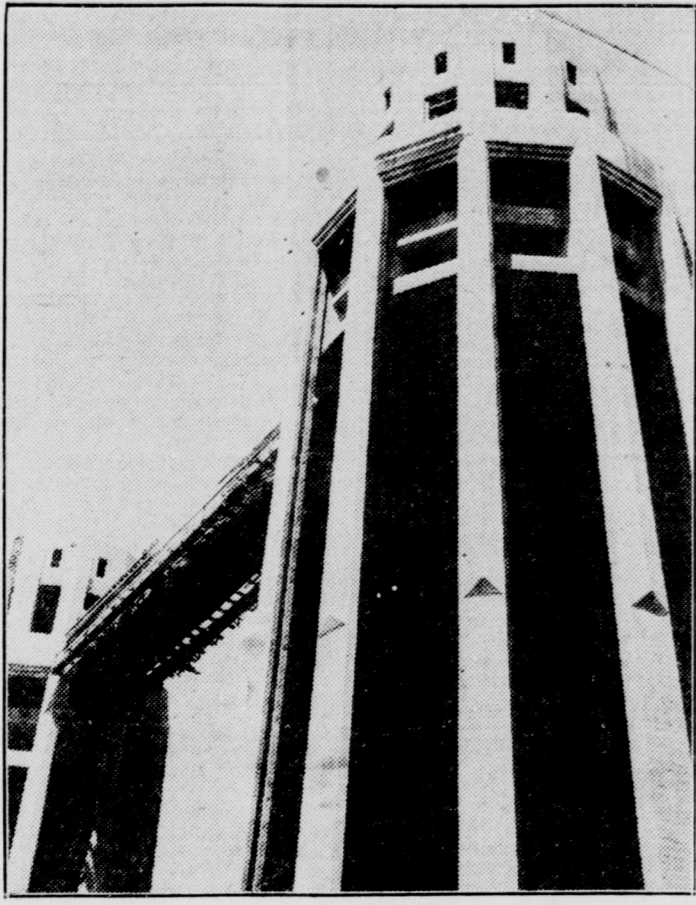

The committee's report was a day over due, and there was no definite indication when it would be submitted. The committee in closed session declined to know what angle of the new deal was responsible for the evident disagreement and subsequent delay.

The committee named to engage in the report drafting consists of Owen P. Young of New York, C. E. Martin of Martinsburg, W. Va., G. W. Pepper of Philadelphia, W. D. Mitchell, former United States attorney general, George L. Buis of Charleston, S. C., C. P. Taff II, son of the former president, of Cincinnati, and J. D. Clark of Laramie, Wyo.

might not be as routine as generally anticipated. Bar leaders insisted, however, that William L. Ransom of New York will be the new president. From other sources came the names of Jefferson P. Chandler of Los Angeles, and Congressman James M. Beck of Pennsylvania, former solicitor general, as possible nominees from the floor.

William P. MacCracken Jr. of Washington, D. C., also was regarded as virtually certain of reelection as secretary.

The name of Huey Long figured prominently in general discussions of the Louisiana State university situation, and the calm with which the council on legal education

9 GENERALS TO REVIEW GUARDS

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—An impressive array of high ranking officers was gathered here today for the inspection and review tomorrow of the 40th division of the National Guard assembled from Utah, Nevada and California.

Maj. Gen. George E. Leach, chief of the national guard bureau of Washington, D. C., was expected to arrive this afternoon or early tomorrow for the ceremonies, to augment a list of eight generals, after his parachute jump from a flaming plane in Arizona.

The generals include Maj. Gen. Paul B. Malone, commanding general of the ninth corps area; Maj. Gen. David P. Barrows, commander of the 40th division; Lieut. Gen. Friedrich von Boetticher, German military attaché to the United States; Brig. Gen. J. H. White, adjutant general of Nevada; Brig. Gen. William G. Williams, adjutant general of Utah; Brig. Gen. Wallace A. Mason of the 79th Infantry brigade from Sacramento, and Brig. Gen. Walter P. Story of the 80th Infantry brigade, Los Angeles.

In addition will be the commanders in chief of the guard, Governor Frank F. Merriam, California; Governor Henry H. Flood, Utah, and Governor Richard K. Irwin, Nevada.

The review, embracing infantry, artillery, tank, aviation, military police, hospital, engineering and signal units, will involve 6000 troops which participated in the largest tactical maneuvers ever held by citizen forces on the west coast.

COLLINS SAYS PWA WATER PLAN NEEDS BOND ISSUE

Supervisor N. E. West of Laguna was right when he said yesterday that Orange county has a chance to launch its water project through the Public Works administration; but this would require a county bond issue, and is an entirely different program from the one referred to by Congressman Sam L. Collins when he said Orange county has no chance of Works Progress administration aid under present regulations.

Congressman Collins explained today that the Public Works administration and the Works Progress administration are two separate agencies. Certainly he said, there is a chance for financing through the former, if the people of the flood control district vote bonds representing 55 per cent of the cost of the water program. On that basis they could ask for a PWA grant of 45 per cent of the cost of the work.

Repeats Opinion

On the other hand, under the PWA regulations referred to by Mr. Collins, Orange county's project could not qualify in his opinion because the many-year cost of such projects is likely to be above the $1140 limit set by the PWA. If

DOCTOR TO SPEAK ON INTERVIEW WITH MUSSOLINI

"Fascist Italy: My Interview With Mussolini" will be the subject to be presented by Dr. George Earle Raiguel on March 31, 1936, at the last program of the Orange County Forum 1935-36 series. Dr. Raiguel will speak in place of Dr. Robert M. Hutchins who was scheduled for March 17, but will be unable to be on the Pacific coast in the spring of 1936.

Dr. Raiguel is the only American who lectures every year at all of the great forums of eastern United States. He has been a world traveler for years, giving up his practice of medicine because of his great interest in social and political economies and the demand for his discussions on national and international subjects. He has interviewed leaders in Europe, including Mussolini, Briand, Herriot, Stalin, von Hindenburg, former crown prince of Germany, Ramsey MacDonald and many others.

"We regret very much having to make a change of speakers," said Miss Clara Morley, director of the forum, "but this sort of thing happens, of course, with every organization."

HONOLULU COUPLE PARENTS OF SON, WORD RECEIVED

According to word received in Santa Ana by family and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Albion Wicke (Alla Neely) are parents of their first child, a son, Henry Albion Jr., born July 6 in Honolulu. The little boy is the grandson of Mrs. Sadie R. Neely of 1250 West Third street.

The Wickes' address is 3857 Maunaloa, Honolulu.

Mrs. Wicke made a brilliant scholastic record in Santa Ana High school and Junior college and, after working two years in the Edison company offices here, completed her college work at the University of Hawaii and taught in Hawaii.

Her husband is a chemist. They were in the United States a year ago on a vacation trip.

CATHOLICISM RAPPED BY GOERING

BERLIN, Thursday, July 18. (AP) Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering, minister of aviation and commander of Germany's secret police, today issued an order to criminal prosecution authorities to enforce strictly the existing decrees against "political Catholicism."

Goering said this Catholicism "must be overcome by positive national socialism."

Important Task

Foreshadowing the end of all Catholic youth organizations, he stressed the important task which the Hitler youth movement faces in the present clash between the philosophies of life.

Today's decree said:

'Use All Means'

"The minister emphatically demands that all authorities promote the Hitler youth organizations." It continued with a claim that Goering, now as before, rejects the idea of a cultural fight against the Roman Catholic church, but said "all means will be invoked against those Catholic priests who misuse their religious authority."

The order follows shortly after a bitter protest by the Catholic church against the sterilization law, the restriction of Catholic youth organizations, and the use of Rosenberg's paganistic book, "The Mystery of the Twentieth Century," as often causing a violation of the concordat with the Vatican.

LADY ASHLEY AFRAID SHE'LL MAKE DOUG BIGAMIST

SOUTHAMPTON—Lady Ashley, arriving here today with Douglas Fairbanks sr., on the S. S. Empress of Britain, said there was no chance of them marrying this year because she "wouldn't think of making him a bigamist."

The former dancer and the American movie star were both in cheerful mood as they returned after five months' absence from England, but only Lady Ashley talked of personal affairs. Lady Ashley came right to the point: "He couldn't be married if he wanted to until the divorce in California (from Mary Pickford) becomes final in January. Would you want me to get him jailed for bigamy?"

Hugh Robert Orr is Guest-Poet of Unitarian Church Book Review Tea

Reads Poems As Program For Day

Poetess-Wife Goes With Speaker Like "Modern Brownings" On Tour

"Brownings of 1935," Hugh Robert Orr, accompanied by his poetess-wife, Francis Crawford Orr, delighted scores of poetry-lovers with his reading of original poems and discussions of literature at the summer book review tea of the Unitarian church yesterday afternoon.

Charmed by the poetry of Mrs. Orr, Mr. Orr followed Browning's whirlwind courtship technique and married the young poetess shortly after they met four months ago. Sympathetic in their appreciation and composition of poetry, the two are now touring Southern California, giving lectures and reading their poetry. They have a compact trailer, packed with books and current literary periodicals as well as domestic commodities. Incumbent head of the literature department of the University of Omaha, Mr. Orr intends, however, to establish a residence in California.

Explaining that his topic, "A Poet's Crazy," was conceived from Plato's remark that poets are possessed of madness, Mr. Orr said that poets were different from other people in that they possessed more sensitiveness to beauty and experience. "They have more feeling and reaction to things," Mr. Orr continued.

Poetry is Practical
"Poetry, like the other arts," he declared following the lecture, "has as practical a place in life as bread and clothing. Any creative expression which illuminates life and makes it more worthwhile is as essential to happiness and a full existence as anything that is available to us."

Dante, Homer, and other classical poets are Mr. Orr's favorites. He enjoys them more and in the opinion of his wife, "reads them better than he does his own things." Recently he has become interested in songs and chants of American Indians and modern Russian poetry.

"Gertrude Stein," he pondered, "I think she has a good time making fun of people. Some of her things are very enjoyable, but for the most part she has lost the purpose of literature—to convey an impression. Much of her work is confusing."

Reads Original Poems
Enhanced by the sonorous reading of Mr. Orr, a group of poems from "Toward Parnassus," a book of original poems which the Ors have published, were presented for

Mary Stoddard Sensational Stunt Weddings Are Destructive to Happiness in Sincere Marriages

By MARY STODDARD
Stunt marriages! What is my opinion of them? Since a young woman who contemplates one, or, rather, did contemplate it until the pastor of her church refused to perform the ceremony, I shall give my honest opinion.

However material this old world may become in the thoughts, deeds or actions of its inhabitants, the fact ever remains that marriage is a divine and sacred institution—except when the ceremony is performed over a roaring waterfall or as a feature at some public event with a shower of pots and pans and a new black stove instead of a flutter of rice.

CHURCH CLASS HAS PARTY AT BEACH

Forty-five members of the Home Builders' class of the First Christian church cooled off from the hot weather at a steak bake at Huntington Beach Tuesday night.

A stanza from "Atomic Tides," by Mr. Orr is given here:
'The star gives birth to poems;
The flame, to thin moth wings
A mystery lies under
This pagentry of things.'
Concluding the afternoon, tea was served in the gardens of the church by the committee including Mrs. Herbert Birt, chairman, Mrs. William Waddell and Mrs. Alice Magill.

'Keep Busy!' Santa Anan Advises

"Keep busy, and you'll be happy!" This advice came this morning from an energetic little woman, Mrs. A. Lindley, 2802 North Main street, who doesn't allow the fact that she is 77 years old to deprive her of any of the joy of healthy, active existence.

Mrs. Lindley came into The Journal office to order a pattern for knitted gloves. She began knitting pretty blue and white summer gloves "just for fun," and since has been selling them to her friends and her friends' friends.

Quits Win Prizes
Quits, several of which have won prizes in quilt displays, hooked rugs, paintings, pulled rugs and gay afghans are among articles turned out by the busy fingers of Mrs. Lindley, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur C. Merritt.

"What's grandma doing now?" is apt to be the comment of her friends, for she is on the alert for new ideas and adventures in handicraft.

After a girlhood of pioneering experiences in '68 with her parents on a land claim in Minnesota, a quarter-century of life in Portland, Ore., and the rearing of a son and two daughters, all living, Mrs. Lindley has lost none of her joy in living.

Always Worked
'I've always worked in some way, to keep my family together, and if I couldn't do something and had no interest in life, I don't know what would become of me," confessed the Santa Anan.

She left the office, walking firmly and quickly—but something of her enthusiasm and zest stayed behind to brighten the morning.

BRAUNS MAY MAKE PERMANENT HOME IN SANTA ANA

Because of their pleasant associations here, Mr. and Mrs. G. William Braun, who with their children, Jane and Billie, have come from Buffalo, N. Y., to South Pasadena for the present, may make their permanent home in Santa Ana.

The New Yorkers are old friends of Mrs. F. W. Wieseman and Mr. and Mrs. William Stauffer of Santa Ana, and very recently have been entertained as guests in Santa Ana. Mrs. Braun's mother, Mrs. W. H. Seib, has spent a number of winters in this city.

SEÑOR SANCHEZ FLORES

PADUA PLAYER PLANS ART EXHIBIT AT LITTLE THEATER

Senor Sanchez Flores, who is taking part in both "Rosita" and "La Sereñata Lupita," at the Padua Hills Little Theater, will exhibit some of his art work at the theater beginning tomorrow, and for the first time in the United States.

A plaster of paris mask of Mary Jean Voseipka, Padua Institute of Arts student, and various studies of Indian life as the artist-actor has known them in Mexico, will be exhibited. Senor Flores is a friend of Diego Rivera, from whom he learned fresco painting in Guadalajara.

This month, the "Sereñata" is playing Wednesday afternoon and evening and Thursday evening, and "Rosita" plays Friday afternoon and Saturday afternoon and evening at the theater.

HAGTHROP HOME IS SCENE OF SEWING

Hostess to her sewing club, Mrs. Ed Hagthorp entertained in the gardens of her home on North Parton yesterday afternoon.

Steaks were grilled on an outdoor grate, and luncheon was served under umbrellas on the lawn. Children, accompanying their mothers, played croquet.

Present were Meses. Walter Kennedy, Edward Greene, Fred Strong, W. H. Woodard, Harold Holman, J. S. Taylor and George Allison of Santa Ana, Mrs. Harry Reihl of Orange and Mrs. Ed Green of Garden Grove.

MOTHERS' CLUB TO MEET ON MONDAY

Monday, July 22, has been the time set for the monthly all-day meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Mother's club in Veterans' hall.

A covered-dish luncheon will be served at noon.

Country Club Women Feted At Beach

Santa Ana Country club women golfers were entertained at a morning of golf and a picnic luncheon followed by bridge yesterday by women golfers of Huntington Beach Country club at the beach.

Mrs. Charles V. Doty of Santa Ana won first place in A class golfers for the morning, and Mrs. E. H. Guthrie of Santa Ana tied for first in B class.

Other Santa Anans present included Mesdames B. J. MacMullen, H. H. Harwood, Osman Pixley, Homer, Robinson, Hugh Shields, Walter McClure, R. C. Hoiles, R. W. Weston, Don Andrews, Harry Bakre, Jack Colburn, J. L. McFadden and J. L. Bushard.

MEETING TIME OF S.O.O.B. CHANGED TO AFTERNOONS AT 2

Changing the time of their meetings, Social Order of Beauceant members at their session in the Masonic temple last night decided that beginning with their next meeting, September 4, the group will assemble at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, have a pot-luck supper with the Commandery of Knight Templars, play cards or enjoy a social evening, and conclude with refreshments.

For the past two years, the Beauceants have held evening meetings. Previous to that time, they assembled in the morning for an all-day session.

Wednesday, July 24, was set as the date of a desert bridge at the home of Mrs. William Sudady in Lemon Heights at 1 o'clock. Members are directed to drive east on Seventeenth street to Newport, turn left, turning right on Newport to Skyline drive which will be marked with arrows to the home of Mrs. Sudady.

Arrangements for transportation are to be made through Mrs. W. E. Patterson, 5119; Mrs. B. E. Dawson, 1659-J, and Mrs. A. R. McFadden, 4178-W.

Celebrating the eighth birthday of the founding of the Beauceants, a birthday party will be held in Anaheim park Saturday, July 27. Knight Templars will join with the group at a pot-luck supper at 6 o'clock. The affair is for members and families.

A card party will be held during August.

SANTA ANANS MEET AT BEACH HOME

For an afternoon of swimming and sewing, a group of Santa Anans spent yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ray Dietrich in Huntington Beach. A covered-dish luncheon was served at noon.

Present were Meses. D. H. Tibbals, George Calhoun, John Mills, Dale Elliott, Russell Adkinson, Harry Becker, the hostess, and children of the guests.

The Thinkers

Wherein women of the community express their views on topics of particular interest to women. If there is a question that interests or puzzles you, suggest it, and we will collect opinions on it for you!

Does Santa Ana need a larger public park and playground, and what can women do to help promote it?

Mrs. Frank D. Corey—I'm sure we all feel we need a larger park. A playground is a very essential factor in keeping our children occupied and out of mischief. One object of Parent-Teacher work is to provide leisure time facilities for individuals, and it might be in line with P.T.A. endeavors to promote a park. What we really need is a recreational program for young people of all ages.

Mrs. R. E. McBurney—I think we need a park that people can feel free to use. If Santa Ana would work as hard as some of the neighboring cities have, we wouldn't have to drive to Irvine or Anaheim parks whenever we want to have a picnic or spend leisure time outdoors. We'd rather have our children her than out on the highways, too, I believe.

Mrs. James Mahoney—I certainly do think we need a park. I wonder who doesn't think so. When you see the pleasure other towns and cities get from their parks, it seems well worth while working to get one here.

Mrs. J. A. Gajek—I know we need a larger park. All the smaller towns around Santa Ana have such fine parks. I was in hopes we could have one big park around the Santa Ana Bowl, but it didn't work out that way. Perhaps women can help promote one, if they think clearly on the subject.

CHURCH CLASS HAS BUFFET SUPPER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Olsen of 815 East Sixth street was the scene of a buffet supper for the I Go U Cum class of the Orange Avenue Christian church Tuesday night.

At the business meeting it was decided that the home of Mrs. Lucille Knight at 826 Orange would be the meeting place on August 20.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boss, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Storry, Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Storry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McIntyre, Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Dilley.

MASONIC CHAPTERS TO HAVE AFFAIRS

De Molays and Job's Daughters will have their weekly dance tomorrow night at Veterans' hall at 8:30 o'clock.

Plans for a picnic of the two organizations when chapters of Job's Daughters and De Molays throughout the county will be invited to attend are under way for July 30. A public dance will follow the supper. Glenn Evan's recordings will be taken for music.

and try to influence their husbands to work toward having a better park here.

Mrs. E. H. Eisner—I most certainly do think we need a park. If they would take the money now being used in the creek bed park project and put it into our public park system it would do a lot more good. Then old and young people could all enjoy a central park.

Marian Martin House Frock Is 'Unarmed' For Coolness

PATTERN 9478
The really chic woman knows smartness begins in the morning with the house-frock. She also knows neatness and practicality are the real virtues of a dress that must "work for a living." And here's one so cool, so simple, so practical that it's less work than fun to make it. It's fun, too, choosing big gray buttons to accent the shoulder scallops. The softness of the gathered bodice and the tricky pocket and belt bow make the dress quite smart enough to do porch duty or take a trip to market. Printed dimity or swiss or crisp ideas and ready pique, seersucker or gingham more practical ones. Complete, Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart included.

Pattern 9478 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 requires 3 yds 35 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, THE STYLE NUMBER AND SIZE of each pattern.

THE MARIAN MARTIN SUMMER PATTERN BOOK will lead your way to warm weather Chic! From its forty pages view the parade of Clothes for every occasion for every member of the family. Designs all beautifully illustrated, patterns all easy to make. Styles for the small girl, the Dashing Deb, the Blushing Bride and the Mature Matron plus some useful hints and some delightful reading. SEND FOR YOUR COPY NOW! PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

CINNAMON CHOCOLATE FUDGE

By Helen Slabaugh
Ingredients: 2 cups granulated sugar, 1/2 cake chocolate (melted), 1 cup rich cream, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon.
Directions: Boil together the ingredients slowly until syrup forms soft ball in cold water; add before taking from fire, butter, vanilla, and cinnamon.
Let it cool a few moments; beat hard until just before it fudges, then turn into buttered tins. Let cool, then cut into squares. Nuts may be added before pouring into tins.

CORONA DEL MAR IS SWIMMING SCENE OF JOB'S DAUGHTERS

Job's Daughters and their friends found Corona Del Mar a pleasant spot yesterday when the Santa Ana belted held a swimming party there. A pot-luck supper followed the afternoon's sports. Lenore McFarren was in charge of the event.

Job's Daughters present were Ellen Neal, Dorothy Carlson, Virginia Waters, Marjorie McCune, Eupha Neer, Lenore McFarren, Genevieve McFarren, Margaret Abel and Lorraine Wheeler. Chaparrons were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McFarren, Mr. and Mrs. William Dean and Mrs. George Wheeler.

A singing party will be held Monday afternoon at the home of Mildred Pearson, 1029 West Second street.

V.F.W. CIRCLE MEETS IN COZAD GARDENS

Flower gardens at the home of Juanita Cozad, 1413 Garnsey street, formed the setting for members of the Ernest Kellogg auxiliary, V. F. W., sewing circle yesterday.

The covered-dish luncheon was served under lawn umbrellas at noon. Dresser scarfs for the hospital were made during the afternoon. Guests were Florence Perry.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAMS

By HOMER CANFIELD

Captain Henry will lead his showboaters aboard his new, palatial, ultra-modern and mythical theatrical craft, "Show Boat II," when the broadcast takes to the air over KFI-NBC at 5 o'clock. Some of you would be surprised to know just how seriously some listeners took the "Show Boat II" which "destroyed" the fictitious first show boat last month. These same fans will probably shower Captain Henry with letters of congratulations on his new floating theater. For a fitting high light of the program, Ferde Groff's "Mississippi Suite" will be played and accompanied by the band of the "Show Boat II," directed by Thibault. Lanny Ross and Gus Hansen's orchestra.

If you'll please CONRAD THIBAUT play stogie and ask us who we think is the most popular member of the "Show Boat II" troupe will answer Conrad Thibault rather than the much acclaimed Lanny.

Helen Oelheim, recently signed by the Metropolitan, is another great favorite. Tonight she sings "The King."

The dedication ceremonies will mark the return of Molasses to January to the program.

The information that "March of Time" will be returned to dieters in August as a five-night-a-weeker is greeted with hurrahs and hurrahs! The new series will be a quarter-hour instead of thirty minutes as in the past.

Outstanding news events of the day will be reviewed in dramatic form. The hour has yet to be announced. The same hands that have made "March of Time" one of radio's greatest productions will again be in charge.

MINTS IN PARKING METERS

Autoists Clog New Devices

OKLAHOMA CITY, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—Viscous, pre-paid parking meters would yield "a mint of money" but they were only half right. The new civic slot machines have produced both mints and money—candy mints which rebellious citizens slipped into the curbstone parking devices. The first day's "take" was interrupted by a district court injunction, but for that happened City Treasurer Joe Annmerman totaled a miscellaneous collection of nickels, dimes, pennies, slugs and candy and announced it added to $55.73. The meters averaged 49 cents each. Annmerman failed to report how he figured in the slugs and mints. "They'll pay for themselves in 60 days," declared City Manager Orval Mosier, munching a licorice drop. "I think the public rather likes them."

KEATON SUE BY WIFE!

'Wife Swap' Figure Is Named

LOS ANGELES, Thursday, July 18. (AP)—The aging but still agile figure of Buster Keaton today had been suddenly bounced into the already multi-tangled domestic affairs of the wealthy Sewell family of Beverly Hills. Mrs. Mae Elizabeth Keaton tossed her comedian-husband's name into the embattled Sewell feud suit for divorce and popped a $200,000 heartburn suit at Mrs. Leah Clamptt Sewell for allegedly stealing her mate's love. "Ridiculous," retorted Mrs. Sewell, sitting at the time in a superior courtroom listening to her husband and Mrs. Sewell together in a Santa Barbara county hotel last July 4, and that they remained there for three days before returning here. Harking back to the recent sensational "wife swapping" charges involved in the divorce battle between Walter Emerson and his wife, Jane, in which the two Sewells rounded out a strange marital quadrangle, Mrs. Sewell added: "I think Mrs. Keaton will be very sorry she started anything like this. I've fought all this time to protect my good name and I am not going to stop now."

GARDEN CLUB TO MEET AT BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH. Garden club members will decide whether to enter a float in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses next year when they meet tonight for a steak bake in the back yard of Mr. and Mrs. John Dalany's home, 311 Sixth street. Lathrop K. Leishman, chairman of the tournament parade committee and James K. Ingham, member of the committee, will speak at the meeting, according to a letter received this morning by Mrs. Stella R. White, program chairman. Arrangements will be made to visit the Susan Bixby Bryant botanical gardens in Santa Ana canyon this month. The president, Mrs. Clara Bryan of Overlin, Kan.; one brother, Fred Bryan of Horton, Kan., and his nephew, Fred C. Swagye of Orange. Funeral services will be held at the Coffey Funeral chapel here Saturday at 2:30 p. m. with burial in Fairhaven cemetery.

FULLERTON MAN DIES AT ORANGE

ORANGE.—Henry P. Bryan, 63, of 800 East Walnut street, Fullerton, died at St. Joseph's hospital at 3 p. m. yesterday. He had been a resident of Fullerton for the past seven years.

SCORN FOR NIFTY GARB IS ERASED

MOSCOW. (AP) Bolsheviks, who think white collars, neckties and silk dresses are signs of class leanings, have suffered a resounding rebuff. The government approved a "better appearance" campaign which urges the public to devote more thought to clothes. Said the official newspaper Logkaya Industriya: "The desire to wear nice clothes must be respected."

50 TO ATTEND LEGION MEET

More than 50 Santa Ana Legionnaires and auxiliary members are expected to attend the 21st district meeting and pre-convention caucus Saturday and Sunday in Memorial hall, Huntington Beach. Nearly 1000 delegates will attend the two-day conference. A dinner-dance has been planned for Saturday night, with election of a district commander to succeed Eph Williams set for Sunday. R. J. Welch Jr., of Riverside, already endorsed by 21st district for the state commander's post, is to attend and speak on convention plans.

'PETRIFIED SHEEP' STARTS COLLECTION

STEPHENSVILLE, Texas. (AP)—When Ross R. Wolfe, pecan nurseryman, found what he thought was a petrified sheep 15 years ago, he became interested in fossils. It turned out to be just an oddly shaped rock, but Wolfe began collecting petrified wood and fossils. His interest grew when he found "a beautiful thing that looked like a huge stone flower." A Yale paleontologist identified it as a cycad—extinct plant believed to be the "missing link" between ferns and flowering plants. Wolfe's discovery of the Trinity beds of Texas drew the attention of paleontologists to what is believed to be one of the five important cycad fields in North America.

LEMON TARIFF WILL STAND

LOS ANGELES, Thursday, July 18.—There is little likelihood of early action in the reciprocal treaty situation with Italy that would result in any change in the present lemon tariff, William S. Culbertson, who is in Los Angeles to address the American Bar association, told the California Fruit Growers exchange meeting yesterday. Mr. Culbertson represented the California citrus industry in the tariff hearings in Washington last winter, along with Karl D. Loos, exchange Washington counsel.

Mr. Culbertson reported that the reciprocal agreement with Canada is fairly well advanced and that some reduction in tariff on oranges and grapefruit into Canada should result. The co-operative movement as exemplified by the exchange is one of the finest things in our American economic life today," said Mr. Culbertson, who is a former member of the United States tariff commission and ambassador to Chili. T. H. Powell, sales manager, reported that last week's lemon shipments by exchange associations were the heaviest ever made. Both volume of sales and price of all varieties of California citrus have been improving under the heavier demand resulting from hot weather.

ARMY OUT OF STEP

THE SALVATION ARMY, disturbed because the Santa Ana Community Chest directors offered the army only $363 more than it raised in its own 1934-35 drive, announces it will withdraw from the chest and conduct its own campaign here for 1935-36 funds.

This does not appear to be in keeping with the spirit of the chest. All the other agencies accepted what the directors decided they could have, although the estimates of all were reduced and all, the directors agreed, are entitled to more.

Adj. John F. Purdy, one of the army's high-pressure men from Los Angeles, demanded the Santa Ana chest produce $6,864.30 for the army's Santa Ana work, the sum to include the amount the army takes out of the city for promotion work elsewhere.

Santa Ana chest directors were willing to allow $5,500. The army last year raised $5,137 in its own crusade. It cost several hundred dollars to obtain subscriptions and collect the money. It will cost a similar sum this year to make its own campaign. The chest budget would have been given to the army without a cent deducted.

The army received $4,000 from the Riverside chest in the campaign recently closed. Riverside and Santa Ana have about the same number of people.

The army's attitude with respect to the Santa Ana budget does not appear to be justified. Another money-raising siege, on top of the chest drive, will not be welcome, in spite of the good work the army has done in the past.

BOYS, GIRLS AND LEMONADE

THE busy man had breezed into his office, said good morning to everybody, disposed of his hat and was digging into the morning mail when the telephone rang. "This you, Dad? Well, Billy got the gopher. Found him in the trap."

That was important news in this Santa Ana household. It was just the way to start the day.

The gopher had dug up the grass in the parking strip, piled up mounds that made the sidewalk a mess and seemed to be on his way to a complete wreck of the premises. But—

Billy got the gopher. So all was well.

Lunch time came. Several persons the busy man wanted to see. Several matters could be straightened out during the lunch period. But—there was that gopher. Billy was as excited about it as if he had trapped a bear. Probably the busy man should walk home to lunch and see the catch. So he did. The gopher was nice and fat. And the small boy who had captured him was in high spirits. Too busy setting his trap for another one to think about the pony or the new bicycle he wanted.

Three o'clock came. Another telephone ring. It was Mary Ann, the 11-year-old daughter. "Hey, Dad—can you start home a little early? We've got a store on North Main. And we're selling lemonade and butterscotch at 3 cents a glass, and we've made 27 cents, and maybe you'd like to buy something."

A friend telephoned to say he had adopted another baby. The busy man offered congratulations. No, said the friend, he wasn't accepting congratulations in the way one is supposed to when he provides a home for a homeless child.

"I'm selfish about it," said the friend. "I'm adopting another baby because I like 'em."

The busy man understood why.

FOR CHEAPER HOMES

MORE than 11,000 California veterans have acquired homes for themselves and another 428 are on their own farms as a result of their successful working of their own building and loan scheme set up by the state in 1921.

Paying only 5 per cent interest, and principal payments scaled to their incomes, beneficiaries of the loans are acquiring ownership for less than they would otherwise pay in rents. Yet the state has not lost a cent of the $50,000,000 in bond money already loaned and instead is actually making a little money.

Loans are now being made from the additional $30,000,000 bond fund voted last fall, and the veterans' welfare board announces that $5,000,000 of the new fund will be advanced by Jan. 1. After that, the money will be loaned out at the rate of $1,000,000 a month, to the great benefit of the building industry and its workers.

If California can do this for its veterans, why not its other industrious and reputable citizens?

A bill to extend the home loan system to non-veterans was rejected by the legislature this spring. But the plan should not be allowed to die. It will require more discussion than it has had, but it should provide a good issue for candidates for the legislature and the governorship at the next elections.

KEEPING HER NAME CLEAN

AND now it seems it is Buster Keaton who has fallen for the charms of Mrs. Leah Clappitt Sewell, a principal in the recent Los Angeles "wife-swapping" case. Mrs. Keaton, suing for divorce, says she found the solemn-faced screen comedian, in company with Mrs. Sewell, celebrating Independence day in Mrs. Sewell's hotel room at Santa Barbara last July 4. Mrs. Sewell says the charge is ridiculous.

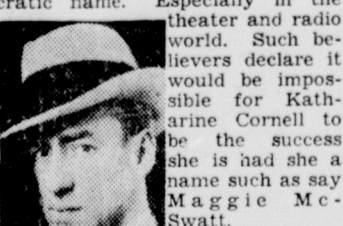

"I've had a hard time keeping my name clean, and I don't intend allowing anybody to besmirch it now," Mrs. Sewell said.

We agree. The lady certainly has had a difficult time keeping her name clean. And Buster's celebration may prove expensive.

Whimsies

of O. O. McIntyre

There's an increasing faith in the value and power of an aristocratic name. Especially in the theater and radio world. Such believers declare it would be impossible for Katharine Cornell to be the success she is had she a name such as say Maggie McSwatt.

To my notion the most regal sounding name in the world is that of a goofy-type of comedian on the screen—Sterling Holloway. In the theater there has never been a more commanding moniker than George Broadhurst. Mein, born Moran, got her name from numerology. It has distinction.

Most dignified of special names for women are Estelle, Pauline, Hortense and Elaine. Pretty names, Elaine, Lucy and Lily become ridiculous when a woman reaches 70. Think of an old lady named Billie Burke! The most beautiful feminine name to me is Charlotte Bronte. The unrealistic real name is Padriac Colum.

The names most aristocratic are those given to Anglo-Saxons when they use the mother's maiden family name. That is Ford, Parker, Ellis, etc. Men named Fortesque and Devereaux make most of us stand up and shoot our cuffs. A name that fits perfectly is that of the ex-polo player, Larry Waterbury.

Speaking of George Broadhurst, he is still around, popping in at the Lambs and Players at intervals and going up the gangplank seasonably for Europe. He's more amiable, his friends say, with the years, and his fund of stories is inexhaustible. He likes a corner table in a club around midnight with old cronies where his yarns are a contagious patter, quip after quip. But he has one fault. He drops his voice when he comes to the point. Everybody laughs but nobody dares ask: "What was that last line?"

One of the recent Broadhurst stories concerned the Frenchman walking the streets of London studying English, trying to pronounce though, rough, cough, hic, cough, plough, and through. He happened to look up and saw an electric sign: "Cavalcade, Pronounced Success!" So he gave it up and went back to Marseilles.

Some historians of the times should write down with a diamonded pen in gold ink the name of Elaine Swenson as a 100 per cent American, not only of words but deeds. For three years she has been working, without pay, on the preparation of a 900-word English vocabulary for the use of foreign beginners in English. It might look easy at the casual glance but means no end of toil in counting millions of words, segregating, making frequency tables and trying the vocabulary out in actual practice. Her 900-word newspaper, The American Word, is permitted in all prisons. She is with the Language Research Institute, a buxom, good-natured, smiling Swedish girl from Seattle.

City interlude: There's the blank, placid peace on the face of a Salvation lass. There's the appealing serenity of a congregation moving out of a Christian Science church. There's the exalted vision of a negro at revival. Illumined. But if you wish to see a bit of heaven on earth, watch a small boy who's just found a nickel in the gutter. I beheld the miracle this evening near Bryant park.

The bullestin I've encountered of a description of the Great White Way was by Colette, the harum-scarum French actress and novelist. On her first night in the city she exclaimed: "Night suddenly manifested itself in a catastrophe of light." But maybe she's been thinking it up the way over. Tricky, the French!

Thingumabobs: Victor Herbert carried a 2-cent coin as a pocket piece from his second year until his passing. . . . When Sinclair Lewis goes to first night his companion is George Jean Nathan. . . . Burton Rascoe is the most highly regarded American book reviewer in England. . . . H. L. Mencken and crosses on German boats on account of the brew. . . . Graham McNamee is the favorite prize fight announcer with women. . . . Otis Skinner also peeks in the mail box after dropping a letter. . . . Frank Buck wears spats and a pitch helmet in the Far East but removes them when he takes a boat for home. . . . Ted Cook in an argument. . . . Dr. John Erskine can play an accordion, if in the mood.

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, Thursday, July 18. — No one has sunk into greater eclipse lately than that ebullient, ranting, debonair individual, Huey P. Long.

After staggering, weak-kneed and bleary from the senate floor after his futile filibuster, Huey has almost disappeared from the headlines which he so loves to adorn.

There are several reasons for this, some not so complimentary to the alleged Kingfish.

One is that Huey has not been as faithful a traveler on the water-wagon as during the heyday of his rampage last winter. The water-wagon is one of the best barometers of Huey's effectiveness. When he is on it he can talk and walk rings around most of his senatorial colleagues. When he is off, his effectiveness is nil.

Another reason is that Roosevelt, with his high tax program, stole Huey's best thunder.

Then there is the effect of certain rookie senators who decided to call the Kingfish's bluff. They resorted to the simple expedient of sitting in the last row of the senate and emitting Bronx cheers.

Even for a man with Huey's hide, it was downright disheartening.

So the Kingfish, who is as good a strategist as they make 'em, decided to fade out of the picture. He has done this before. His policy is that of any good general: When the battle is too hot, retreat, wait for the proper moment, then come back.

A lot of people, of course, claim Huey can't come back. But to one who came back after the Sands Point, L. I., washroom episode, no "come-back" is impossible.

GOLD DIVINER

A LUZ MINING COMPANY has just been restrained from selling its stock. In doing this the securities - exchange commission staged an unusual demonstration.

The demonstration was to test the accuracy of a gold-divining instrument by which the company located its gold.

The Luz Mining company claimed to have a vein of ore which would mine $30 a ton — exceptionally high content. In substantiation of this it cited the word of Professor Philip Haas of Los Angeles, described as a "scientist and geologist with a world-wide reputation as inventor of the mineral indicator."

But the SEC was skeptical. It wanted to know how Professor Haas and his mineral indicator could locate gold. So it asked the professor to come to Washington. Members of the commission arranged a test.

Six large match boxes were arranged on the floor. One box contained a gold nugget worth about $200. Professor Haas was asked to locate the match box which held gold.

He applied himself with great earnestness. The mineral indicator was held in the right hand. It consisted chiefly of a weight suspended from a brass cylinder. If the weight swayed from side to side it denoted the presence of gold.

One by one, Professor Haas held the indicator over the boxes. Over the second box, the indicator swayed. "This box," he said, "contains gold."

Over the fifth box he hesitated, the instrument swayed almost imperceptibly. Finally Haas said: "This box also contains gold."

"Then the second and fifth boxes contain gold," summarized

Andrew Jackson, attorney for the SEC.

Professor Haas hesitated, decided to test the fifth box over again. He repeated the test, declared that this box did not contain gold.

Then the boxes were opened. The second box contained a piece of apple. The fifth box contained the golden nugget.

UNCLE SHYLOCK

THE Home Owners Loan corporation is now face to face with the question of whether the government is going to play Uncle Shylock or Santa Claus.

It has quit making loans and has settled down exclusively to the job of getting its money back. It is merely a collecting agency.

This involves a most important policy—one which goes to the root of the new deal. Millions of dollars have been lent by various new deal agencies, and the general assumption by many people is that the government never will try very hard to get its money back.

This was the case with the HOLC. Much of the money lent to home owners admittedly was a poor risk. The government took up mortgages which private companies turned down. That was the chief reason for its creation.

As a result, the number of HOLC delinquents is piling up rapidly. At present 20 per cent of all HOLC borrowers are delinquent 90 days or more.

It is significant that the HOLC is using persistent—some people claim, hard-boiled—collection methods. With the exception of cases in genuine distress, officials are ringing doorbells daily and demanding cash.

The policy is to dispel the notion that Uncle Sam is a benign charity giver in the mortgage business. He is to be Uncle Shylock.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

THE HOT JOB of sponsoring the AAA amendments in the senate the other day was made easier rapidly. At present 20 per cent of all HOLC borrowers are delinquent 90 days or more.

Latest epithet hurled at mild Henry Wallace is "Our Russian Commissar of Agriculture." Epithet's author was grim, blind Senator Schull. . . . The congressional record shows some of the grammatical slips or ragged sentences of Rush Holt's maiden speech in the senate. Official reporters labored over their notes to make the printed version in keeping with senate dignity. . . . An 11-hour day is in vogue in the office of Senator Reynolds of North Carolina. He and his staff come to work at 8, leave at 7. Average day's crop of callers: 100. . . . Republican Floor Leader Charles McNary battles against senate odds in more ways than one. On a hot day last week when he wanted a shave he presented himself three times at the senate barber shop before he could find an opening in the democratic majority. Senators pay no regular fee for barber service, only a gratuity to the colored barbers. . . . Unlike most dilettante diplomats, the Brazilian Ambassador, Oswaldo Aranha, will spend a summer month "wandering" through western states, getting acquainted with America's Main street. . . . The D. A. R. and American Legion are sponsors of a new "super film" attraction on military service, called "The Birth of a New America." (Copyright, 1935)

MEN WHO HAVE MADE GOOD IN A GREAT BIG WAY

The world—and deny it who can!—owes a great debt of gratitude to Omar Z. Codfish, scientist, who has just invented a collar made of sponge for men. This collar, worn in hot weather, is guaranteed to keep perspiration from trickling down the back of your neck.

Li'l Gee Gee is all prepared for hot weather. She has changed from horn-rimmed glasses to rimless ones.

It is suggested that the government donate all surplus wheat and cotton to the poor. A pound of each is about all that is needed to make home-cooked waffles.

ABIGAIL APPLESAUCE SEZ:

"A foreign critic declares American women do not show enough hauteur. You can't expect them to show everything."

The trouble with tennis is that they always put the net right where your ball lands.

Li'l Gee Gee's sweetie has finally decided to go to work. He says he's got to support his used car in the style to which it's been accustomed.

RADIO NOTE

It's easy to entertain guests in the city during the summer months. You can get plenty of music just by opening a window.

A northern city council is still seeing ways to make the municipal railway pay. Why not purchase 100 rubber streetcars so that more passengers can be jammed in during the rush hours?

YE DIARY

Thys night (having played cards until the hour of midnight) I do return home by petrol buggy, mightily affrighted lest Dame Juice do meet me at the door and say this and that and whatnot, mightily sarcastic; but fortunately the people in the next house had been fighting, and Dame Juice be so filled with what they did say, she does pay naught of attention to my late arrival, for which heaven be praised!

"Well, I must be going" now," the mountaineer said as he slipped over the precipice.

SPANKING EDITORIAL HELPS

Editor The Journal: As a mother who has tried to give her children the best care of which she is capable, I wish to express my appreciation of your editorial on spanking appearing in yesterday's Journal. For nine years I have been trying to gain a satisfactory comprehension of the fundamental principle of child guidance as explained in the chapters on "discipline through freedom" in Maria Montessori's book explaining her unusually successful method of child training. I have accepted her theory whole heartedly; but have been unable to apply it satisfactorily in my own family. Your editorial has helped me most providentially in an emergency.

Please accept my devout gratitude.

Modern Nomads and the Melting Pot

Campground etiquette—each person does as he pleases with total disregard of others. Eating, sleeping, dressing—the multifarious activities of family life—none cares what others do. Conversation is neither invited nor repelled. Fraternity is the leading feature in all contacts. Yesterday's pilgrims have gone; another aggregation has assembled. A dozen other children are using the play apparatus. "Two little fellows, from Missouri and Louisiana, are wrestling in the sand pit. Both bump heads against the wall and go bawling their separate ways. The language emanating from the youthful assemblage is characteristically American—shrill, spontaneous, potent. Yesterday all of these children were leagues apart. Today they are thrown together in a real educative process. Tomorrow they will have been scattered to far horizons. Here is a delegation of boys from a Texas military academy, Louisiana, are wrestling in the sand pit. Both bump heads against the wall and go bawling their separate ways.
